Make Thorough Investigation of
Its Affairs

Kentland, Ind., Oct. 13.—The doors of the Discount and Deposit Bank, Kentland, of which Gov. Warren T. McCray was formerly president, were closed today.

Closing of the bank, one of McCray's chief creditors, came on action of the board of directors, led by William Darroch, new president.

"We want to get away from the odium of old associations and possible complications which may come up and for that reason we are closing the bank to reorganize," Darroch explained.

"We want to get away from all this rot and unpleasant publicity," he asked whether the bank was in good condition, Darroch said he could not say that it was.

"If the bank were in good condition it would be open and in operation."

ELMER ARNEY BADLY HURT

Morristown Man Sustains 3 Broken Ribs—Harry Theobald Arrested
For Improper Driving

Two persons were injured in an automobile accident Friday night shortly after six o'clock, when machines driven by Charley Monroe, 1016 North Arthur street, and Harry Theobald, R. F. D. 2, Greensburg, collided at the corner of Ninth and Main streets, damaging both machines.

Monroe sustained a deep gash over his right eye, which barely missed hitting the eye ball. Elmer Arney of Morristown, who was riding with Monroe, and who rooms at the home of Phil Clark, 832 West Eleventh, was the most seriously injured, suffering three broken ribs, and several facial cuts and bruises.

Patrolman Havens, who investigated the accident, placed Theobald under arrest for improper driving, and he will be given a hearing Tuesday night at 7:30 in police court, before Mayor Thomas.

The two injured men are employed at the I. & C. car shops and were going west in Ninth street toward their homes. Theobald was driving his Ford roadster south in Main, and collided with the rear end of the Monroe Ford touring car, causing it

Rushville is Observing Fire Prevention in Substantial Way

Members of the fire department are getting ready to hang up a crepe on their door. With the nation observing Fire Prevention week, Rushville has observed it to the letter for a solid month. Not a single alarm or run has been answered by the department since September 13, and it has been almost two months since a line of hose was laid for a fire.

The record for the year, however, is 65 runs, which lacks only 2 of equalling the total for last year. The fire loss so far this year is exceptionally low, and is less than $2,000. Chief Williamson's motto today is, "Knock on wood."

GRAND OFFICERS COMING

Will Participate in K. of P. Trabue
Jollification Monday

All but one of the grand officers of the Knights of Pythias lodge, invited to the Trabue jollification meeting here Monday night, have consented to come, the committee in charge of arrangements announced today. The Rushville lodge decided at the regular meeting last Monday night to celebrate the elevation of one of its members, Samuel L. Trabue, to an office in the grand lodge, which will result eventually in him becoming grand chancellor of Indiana.

Representatives of other fraternal orders have been invited and the Pythian Sisters will also participate. No definite program for the event had been arranged today.

DINKENS SENT UP FOR 10 TO 20 YEARS

James Palmer, Companion in Big Four Robbery, Given Same Sentence Which Is Suspended

JURY CONVICTED DINKENS

Mamie Wewee Leisure And Jack
Wewee Released Without Bond—
New Complaints Filed

James Dinkens, age 31, and James Palmer, age 23, defendants in a burglary case were arraigned this morning in the circuit court before Judge Sparks, who passed sentence on them. Dinkens, who was found guilty this week by a jury, was given a 10 to 20 year sentence at the state prison.

Palmer entered a plea of guilty, and he was given a similar sentence, which was suspended as long as he behaves himself. Judge Sparks gave Palmer a stiff lecture, and impressed upon him that the next time he was cited for any trouble, the sentence would be invoked, without trial.

The two men were implicated in the robbery of the Big Four railroad station here in August 1921, when it was charged that $600 worth of merchandise was stolen from the freight room.

Two prisoners held in jail for forty days have been released without bond, and told to report for trial on October 22. There prisoners were Mamie Wewee Leisure and her brother, Jack Wewee, charged with encouraging delinquency.

Several new complaints have been filed in circuit court, and included in the list is a divorce suit filed by Katie M. Newman against Donald

CAST FOR "APRIL" MAKING PROGRESS

All Three Acts Have Been Memorized
And Stage Positions And Impersonations Are Being Learned

CHANGES IN CAST

Tickets Are Selling Fast And A
Full House For Both Nights
Is Predicted

Rehearsals on the home talent show "April," to be given here the 25th and 26 of this month, are progressing splendidly according to Denning Havens, coach and director for the production. The members of cast have learned their parts and adapted themselves to the characters in a remarkably short time.

They have almost finished memorizing the lines assigned them and are working hard on their stage positions and impersonations, the important part in putting over a show of any kind. With the coaching that they will receive from now on until time for the first performance, they should be well polished on a deapable of putting on a show that no one should miss, according to those watching progress of the rehearsals.

The cast has been somewhat altered since it was published, some being shifted to other parts and a new member or two added. The new arrangement promises to be even better than the way it was before putting some in parts that they were much better adapted to than the others.

Lavienna Compton takes a heavy role in the part of "April Blair," a book agent who in the play assumes the part of another character "Tot Marvel." She takes the part with the ease of a veteran, having much previous experience in amateur stage productions and coaching at an elocution school. In the part of "April" she is in many predicaments on the stage that are as pathetic as they are humorous.

Albert Cotton is at the height of his fun making spirit and off hand remarks in the part of "Richard Barrington." No better person could have been picked for the part for he doesn't act on the stage; he is just natural. However, his part is a hard one to hold down and his previous experience shows in his easy stage bearings and impersonations.

The part of "Mrs. Lucy Barrington," the aunt of "Dick Barrington" is brought out well by Thelma Fanning whose personality is well portrayed when she assumes the part of an older lady on the stage.

Gene Kelly is well adapted to his part of "William Carton," a pious gentleman and friend of the Barrington household. He looks and acts the part well at rehearsals and promises to put his part over well in the entertainment.

The part of "Peggy Carton," his wife, is taken by Magdaline Arbuckle who is unusually well suited to her part. She has that sedate air and characteristics that are peculiar to this part and yet drops the self-consciousness that is apt to go hand in hand with a part of this sort.

A double role is taken by William Worthington, better known as just plain "Bill." He portrays his part of James Schooley, a preacher of Platt, Nebraska, well and then at the same time carries the part "Foster," the gardener, which is altogether different from the from the first mentioned.

Mention of his ability on the stage is hardly necessary and he is carrying his parts through in this show

GOOD PROGRESS MADE IN WORK ON INDIANA STATE HIGHWAYS

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 13. — Although the extremely wet season delayed work all over the state, good progress has been made on most of the projects the past week, declares John D. Williams, director of the state highway department, in the commission's weekly traffic bulletin issued today showing the condition of state roads for the week of October 14-20.

Mr. Williams said that the detour between Ossian and Bluffton has been raised. Excellent progress is reported on the heavy rock cut north of Bedford which is rapidly nearing completion. Construction work on State Road 7 west of Logansport is completed and the road open to traffic. The huge fills north of Clinton will be completed in the next few days.

A contract has been let, the bulletin says, and work started on paving a mile on Road No. 8 just south of Gary. It is expected to complete this work this fall which will give continuous pavement on one side of the road between Gary and the Lincoln Highway at Merrillville. The resurfacing project east of Valparaiso is being rapidly completed and the long detour at this place will be raised in less than two weeks. However, a short detour will continue a week or so to complete the work in the city limits of Valparaiso.

Mr. Williams pointed out that resurfacing work north of Portland has made slow progress owing to a bridge being out necessitating a longer haul of materials. A temporary bridge has just been installed and progress is being expedited. Slow progress is being made also as resurfacing the Paoli road west of New Albany because the contractor failed to procure the necessary amount of asphalt. The commission hopes to have this road open to traffic before December 1.

Summarizing the condition of the state system Mr. Williams said that while the dry weather of the past few weeks aided greatly the construction work retarded earlier in the season because of rain, it is leaving gravel and stone roads very dusty, but this is a condition that can not be overcome. The whole organization is working to the end that construction move forward as rapidly as possible before cold weather stops work, because it is desired that the system go into the winter with as few detours as possible.

with the same winning personality that has marked his efforts in other home talent productions. Irish dialogue in the part of "Foster," the gardener, will furnish many laughs for the audience.

Denning Havens will also have a part in the show as well as direct it. He will furnish one of the high lights of the show as "Bill Drum," press agent for the "Snap-It-Up" show company. American slang is carried to its utmost in this part and every word is a laugh while it adds materially to the plot of the company.

"Tot Marvel," a chorous beauty with a "Devil-may-care" air always is taken by Lillian Wilkinson. She has mastered her part to perfection and promises to be an interesting character in the production.

She is fearless at all times, telling everyone just where to head in and does it in a manner that is very humorous.

The part of "Watts" the butler, was made to order for Jack Neilly and he is not slighting it in any way. He has that stiff formality that is customary to a butler and a better person could not be wanted for the part.

Lawrence Adams, one of the new high school teachers, was picked for Michael, the chauffeur. While his part is not as heavy as some of the others, it is always essential when he appears on the stage. The audience will think he is a real chauffeur rather than just acting the part when they see him, so well does he handle himself.

Wade Dill makes a real-for-sure-enough sheriff in his portion of the comedy as "Simpson," the sheriff. Dill just can't help from being hard boiled (on the stage) anyhow so what better sheriff could be asked for?

The jobs of "Annie" the maid, and "Maggie," the cook, are taken by Hazel Dugle and Margaret Oster, respectively, and they make real servants, too, on the stage. The have both had previous experience in home talent productions and are very much at ease on the stage at all times.

With a cast of this kind and an able director, the show promises to be a great success. From the way that the tickets are already selling, a full house for both nights is already predicted.

OBEDIENCE:—If ye love Me,

15.

Points Way to Better Country Life

To enable farmers to enjoy modern schools, libraries, hospitals, and recreation centers seems less a question of per capita wealth and income than it is a problem of grouping rural communities so that the cost is distributed among the largest possible number of people, Dr. C. J. Galpin of the United States department of agriculture pointed out at the Farm Home Conference at Purdue University, this week. Dr. Galpin cautioned his hearers, however, that groupings of taxing areas for such purposes should not be too large.

Dr. Galpin compared briefly the total income of the farm population and the total income of people not on farms as reported by the National Bureau of Economic Research. He said that studies in various sections of the country indicated that in 1919

the per capita income of farmers compared favorably with that of city people. In a number of states the per capita farm income equalled or exceeded the per capita income of other people in the state.

"The consolidated school movement points the way for other institutions in rural districts," Dr. Galpin said. "To enable farmers to afford modern grade schools it was necessary to make the school districts larger. A similar method for the support of libraries, recreation centers, hospitals and high schools can probably be worked out."

Monopoly or Competition?

It is a fundamental principle of socialistic teachings that state monopoly in any line of service is to do away with competition.

As a general principle, government service is only efficient when it meets the direct stimulus of competition with private enterprise.

Postal charges compete with express and insurance and banking rates maintained by private corporations that carry on successfully.

Socialistic propaganda continually seeks to take away all private competition and thus fasten upon the public governmental monopoly.

Complete governmental monopoly brings stagnation to any country, for it kills the initiative and enterprise of its citizens.

Cut Taxes to Increase Receipts

Congressman Madden of the House committee on appropriations proposes a revision of income taxes downward, all the way from the smallest taxable income to the largest.

Secretary Mellon backed elimination of the excess profits tax and reduction of the surtax.

Experience has proved that the government would receive a greater total tax income from the reduced tax.

The higher taxes drove capital into tax-exempt securities.

As long as high income taxes tend to drive otherwise productive capital into tax-exempt securities it may not be reached.

At the same time this stimulation of the sale of tax-exempt securities is adding to taxpayers' burdens by increasing local and state taxes.

Miss Vivian Vance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Vance of East Fifth street, entertained a number of her juvenile friends yesterday afternoon, it being her third birthday anniversary.

The Misses Helen Monjar and Lenore Wooden pleasantly entertained sixteen of their girl friends with a dance at the home of Mrs. Maude Reed last night.

He's coming. The next president of the United States will speak in this city on October 23. And that's just one week from next Friday. Since it was announced that W. H. Taft, candidate for president, would make an itinerary in Indiana there has been a lingering hope here that he would come through this city. The plan of the three days trip was announced last night and Rushville is in the lucky list.

Roy Steele had a miraculous escape from death at Milroy Tuesday afternoon, and is in a serious condition. While driving east on Main street in Milroy his team was struck by a Big Four through freight about three o'clock. Both horses were instantly killed and Steele was severely shaken up and his foot badly crushed. Whether or not he is internally injured physicians have not been able to tell.

Never before was there such a scene in a railway station as was witnessed last night, where hundreds of people tried to buy tickets for the Watson Special to Columbus. Pandemonium reigned but all kept in good humor. John Tittsworth acted as chaperon for the crowd of women who attended Mrs. Watson and it was with the greatest effort that he succeeded in securing a place for them on the stage. Miss Alice Norris led a howling host of women up the streets of Columbus and they got a cheer all along the line. To get an idea of the brand of enthusiasm unbridled one need but chronicle the doing of one of the musical organizations aboard the special.

Herbert Flint, Lon Stewart, Albert Capp, Walter Hubbard, Ben Norris, Court Levi and "Red" Kramer's butchery—formed a Florida sextette that went from coach to coach singing "We're here because we're here because." Watson was in bad voice last night, being so hoarse he could hardly be heard fifty feet away when he first began talking. Soon he warmed up and thawed out, making one of the best political speeches heard in Columbus.

Eugene Miller will leave tomorrow for New York. From there he will steam away for Glasgow, Scotland, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Miller and son of Varna, Ill., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Young of West Seventh street. They made the trip here in their automobile.

HUNTERS MAY EXPECT
BIG SEASON SPORT

Game Birds Are Plentiful In All Sections Of The State, According To Game Wardens

QUAIL SUPPLY IS STRONG

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 13. — Small wild game and game birds are more prevalent in Indiana woods and fields this year than in many decades, and hunters may expect a wonderful season's sport, declares George N. Mannfeld, chief of the fish and game division of the state conservation department in a bulletin just issued to 160 organized fish and game protective associations operating in Indiana to further wild and aquatic life.

His statement is made following a survey of the situation and from reports by game wardens, farmers and sportsmen from all sections of the state. Reports thus secured lead to the declaration that quail are more plentiful than at any time in 25 years. Such a condition was brought about, Mr. Mannfeld says, by observance of productive seasons, mild winters and the fact that the public generally cooperates with the conservation department.

Mr. Mannfeld reports that wardens in the past month arrested 172 persons for violating fish and game laws. One hundred and sixty-eight were convicted and paid fines and costs aggregating $3,155.10. One crew of two men working in southern Indiana made 15 convictions of people operating seines and nets.

CHURCH AT COURT HOUSE

Safety Sam's Sermonette

If you was t' ask me which I'd rather climb into his machine with an' risk my precious neck in his care, th' highbrow gent who races through town with his mind in th' library or factry or store, as he sort of unconscious like puts th' full weight o' his right brogan on th' gas, or put my carcass in th' tender keepin' o' th' ignoramus who never has a thought t' leave anywhere I aint sure which I'd choose; either'd be a purty tough fate t' hafta think o' facin'!

Th' first mentioned party's liable t' feel so infernally capable that he thinks drivin' is, for him, something he can do an' do faster'n anybody else, while his thoughts are bein centered on such heavy question as which corner o' his desk t' set th' cigarette tray on or whether he'd prefer a brunette or blonde shade in case he might decide t' change stenographers. Prob'ly th' second party never even sp'icious he don't know anything an' so, not havin' any brains, he never misses th' knowledge. 'Sawful t' think what'd happen if either o' these vacuum tanks sh'd ever be confronted with a sudden emergency, say like a kid dashin' out from th' sidewalk or from b'hind a machine parked at th' curb in front of 'em, or a trolley car take a crossin' just ahead of 'em, or a hog run out o' th' bushes along th' road, while he was travelin' four times as fast as he ought t' be under th' conditions!

I reckon that how that kind o' birds ever succeed in enticin' other people t' get in an' ride with 'em will always be one o' life's mysteries!

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Oct. 13. — With the Giants leading the chase again by one step, the world series were resumed this afternoon at the Polo Grounds when the Yankees will have to do or be done in the fourth game of the championship fight.

Down two games to one by virtue of the thrilling 1 to 0 victory of the Giants yesterday, the American League champions have a lot more than their backs to the wall. Their hands are almost tied and if the blind falls over the eyes today the Giants shooting squad will have to do nothing but pull the trigger.

Gloomy slate colored clouds hung in the sky this morning. There was almost a mist in the air and the atmosphere was wet with impending rain. Interference of the weather jinx, which has threatened for several days, seemed imminent.

The Yankees know that they must even the count with the worlds champions today or their job is almost hopeless. One more victory by the Giants will impose upon the Yanks the task of winning three straight and such things aren't done often to McGraw's team.

Wally Pipp, the fine first baseman of the Yanks and one of the most important cogs in the machine will be out of the game today and he may not appear again in the series. Pipp wrenched his lame ankle in sliding for second base and Miller Huggins said this morning that Pipp would not be able to play.

Superb pitching by Arthur Nehf who is the greatest money player in the game and the home run of the great Casey Stengel, set the Yankees back in the third contest.

Nehf had to be perfect to win from "Sad Sam Jones," the Yank squire. With two pieces of the most sensational fielding, Groh twice saved Nehf when it seemed he was about to fall under a rally and the timely clout of Old Casey Stengel furnished the punch that won the game.

Bob Meusel, the Yank left fielder was bitterly denounced by New York writers this morning and openly charged with insubordination for refusing to obey the order of Miller Huggins to bunt in the third inning after Dugan had doubled and Ruth had been passed with none out. Meusel instead of bunting, laid into the ball and fell into a double play. The Yankees had three good chances to score and two were nipped by double plays while the third was cut off by Heinie Groh's almost impossible stop and a headlong dive to third base in time for a force out.

Considering that all the experts regard yesterday's game as the turning point in the series, the Yank players were unusually optimistic yesterday and they feel absolutely confident that they will win today. Babe Ruth, they point out, is a murdered in the Polo Grounds and if the Giants will pitch to him they claim he will break up the game.

Bitter feeling is springing up between the players on the two clubs. Babe Ruth, under his signature, charged the Giants today with "dirty playing." He said that Snyder grabbed Ward's bat and prevented him from swinging at the third strike in the ninth inning of yesterday's game and that he had done the same thing in previous games.

The Giants are all "sore" at Ruth, claiming that the Babe was unnecessarily rough against Snyder and Kelly in the first and second games. The champions pointed out meaningfully that they carry spikes just as big as the Bases.

With the edge on the Yankees now, the Giants are in a position where McGraw can juggle a little bit with his pitchers and he will probably start Jack Scott today with Rosey Ryan ready to take up the labors if the big farmer doesn't get along.

Bob Shawkey, still as steady as he ever was if his arm is not as good as before may get the call from Huggins and young Waite Hoyt will be ready in the bull pen.

Firpo Made Friends and Cash

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Oct. 13.—In addition to accumulating a nice pile of money during the process of being built up as an opponent for Jack Dempsey, Luis Angel Firpo, the big South American, made many friends.

There are those who maintain that the dollar is the best friend a man can get and the only one worth holding and it works both ways for Firpo as the friends he acquired will be a very substantial means of increasing his earning power.

Firpo has smartly decided to spend a lot of his time in the United States and he is not actuated by purely mercenary motives. The South American likes the United States, he feels kindly toward the people and realizes that this country has been good to him.

There is no reason why Americans should not be nice to Firpo, and should not treat him hospitably. He is a very high class fellow, a likable chap and he has a wealth of personality.

All of the writers who followed Firpo through his training for the Dempsey fight grew to like him as most of them like the champion. Firpo's frankness, a quality of character that is rare among pugilists, gained for him a confidence from the newspapermen that he might well boast of. Few figures of professional sport have established the reputation for veracity that Firpo earned with the writers.

It would seem that Firpo is naturally frank and truthful rather than inexperienced and trained in the art of prevarication, which many boxers have assumed as a privilege of their profession. There are more "white lies" in boxing than in any other sport and there are vastly more "black lies" practiced as a licensed deviation from the rules.

While he was training in Atlantic City for the Dempsey fight, a party of newspapermen visited his cottage and found a rubber working industriously on his left arm. Some casual inquiries were voiced by the scribes and Firpo replied that he had been bothered for several days with an attack of neuritis.

Under ordinary procedure, Firpo would have been forced by a manager to cover up his ailment, or if there would be some purpose in having it noised about that he was not in physical shape, more open means of drawing it to the attention of the press would have been followed.

BASKETBALL LID IS LIFTED FRIDAY NIGHTWebb Defeats Burney Here, 47 to 11,
And New Salem Wins From Arlington; 23 to 19

GAMES UNDER NEW RULES

The high school basketball lid was officially pried off Friday night in this county, when two games were played, with Webb having little trouble in trouncing the Burney high school of Decatur county and New Salem sprang a surprise by handing Arlington a defeat. The scores were Webb 47, Burney 11; New Salem 23, Arlington 19.

Webb and Burney attracted a big crowd for their opening game, which was played on the Modern Appliance floor in this city, and the game was played under the new rules, with quarters being used instead of halves. The four ten minute periods are believed to make a faster game than the two 20 minute periods, used before.

At no time in the game was Webb in doubt, and they played in mid-season form. New Salem outplayed Arlington in the last half, in the game at Arlington, and won the game by the close count of 23 to 19. New Salem lined up with Wills and King at forward; K. Wilson at center; H. Wilson and E. Wilson at guards.

TWO SOUGHT BY SHERIFF

(By United Press)

Pana, Ill., Oct. 13.—Four men today were held to the Christian county grand jury, without bail, for murder, on instructions of a coroner's jury which yesterday completed investigation the death of five men and brought in a verdict of death by poison whiskey.

The grand jury, specially summoned, will meet at Taylorville, the county seat, Monday.

John Tokoly, owner of the saloon where the whiskey, declared by the coroner's jury to have contained fusel oil, and his son, Stephen, are under arrest. Both are in a hospital here. They drank the same liquor.

The sheriff is searching for Robert A. Smith, Pana druggist, and Paul Tokoly, another son of the saloon-keeper included in the coroner's jury recommendation. Smith told his wife he was going to Pekin, Ill., where police have been asked to arrest him.

The saloon-keeper told the coroner's jury that Smith furnished the alcohol used in the manufacture of the liquor "the color of whiskey" which killed five in two days this week and put a half dozen other men in hospitals. Relatives of the dead men testified the victims had declared before their death they purchased the liquor in Tokoly's place.

Fight Is Under Way Between
Four Football Teams

NORTHWESTERN VS INDIANA

Indianapolis Host Today To Big
Contest, While Purdue Meets Iowa
At Latter's Field

(By United Press)

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Big ten teams open the first round of the championship fight today when Purdue meets Iowa and Northwestern clashes with Indiana.

Ohio State tackles the hardest mid-west game of the year in Colgate, powerful eastern team. The Buckeyes fight for the honor of western conference football and may be expected to give their all. The known strength of Colgate leaves the result in question.

Iowa is credited with having a comparatively easy game in the war tilt although the Purdue followers have been hollering for a championship this year.

Judging from the DePauw defeat of Indiana the Northwestern team should go Evanstonward tonight with a victory to their credit but the return of cripples of the Indiana line-up may alter the result.

Wisconsin's showing against the Michigan aggrs will give fans an opportunity to compare Chicago and Wisconsin for the first time. The farmers are not expected to prove troublesome for Wisconsin.

Vanderbilt comes north to meet Michigan with memories of a scoreless tie last year still fresh in their minds. The Bolverines also recollect that incident and are expected to place their best team on the field to win.

In Butler, Coach Zuppke's Illinois eleven expects to find a worthy successor to Nebraska. The Indianapolis team has nine veterans from the team that last year scored a victory over the Illini.

Minnesota again is forced to play a team well filled with substitutes in meeting the Haskell Indians. Injuries persist in the Minnesotans.

Chicago has an idle day with no game scheduled. Coach Stagg expects to give his charges a long drill to polish up the attacks that so far has proved insufficient. Against the Colorado Aggies, a week ago, Chicago was twice held for downs when within three years of a touchdown.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 13.—The state capital pushed practically everything aside today to make way for football, king of autumn sports.

A likely looking squad from Northwestern university a squad said to be much superior to anything Northwestern has had on the field for many years, invaded Indianapolis for the annual game with Indiana university. It is the only Big Ten game to be played in Indianapolis this season.

Approximately 2,000 Indiana rooters arrived from Bloomington this morning. The Crimson band, numbering 132 pieces met the special train and headed a parade through the downtown district.

A Northwestern special from Chicago, bearing 400 rooters and the Purple band of 60, pulled in a few minutes later and another parade, smaller but no less enthusiastic marched through the streets.

COOLIDGE FOR ENFORCEMENT

Prohibition Commissioner Haynes Speaks At Citizenship Conference

Washington, Oct. 13. — "President Coolidge stands for square enforcement of the prohibition law. He is no less wholehearted regarding this matter than the late president Harding. The Department of Justice is also dead in earnest."

These facts were flatly stated today by prohibition Commissioner Roy A. Haynes, at the morning session of the Citizenship Conference.

Candidates in the next Presidential election must declare frankly how they stand on the prohibition question, according to Bishop William F. McDowell, resident bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Washington in an address of welcome this morning. He declares that the question of Prohibition enforcement will occupy an important place in the presidential election. He stated that the friends of prohibition "have not the slightest intention of yielding now the victory has been won."

KRYL HERE SUNDAY

The two performances scheduled for Sunday at the coliseum by Kryl's Band will be a big event for Rushville concert season. Since the first announcement of Kryl's appearance at the park, such unusual interest in the event has been manifested by the whole community that a hearty welcome and an audience that will tax the limits of the coliseum to its utmost capacity are assured for Kryl and his musicians. Kryl's success with the masses and the classes alike is easily understood by those who study him. His genial personality his unaffected manner and his genuineness of purpose win him an instant response from his audiences. Kryl has no mannerisms; nor idiosyncrasies, he is just what he appears, a whole-souled, big-hearted, generous man. Above all these, Kryl is conscientious and gives the best that is in him at all times without reserve. He loves music for music's sake, and no matter where he appears or under what conditions, he enters into the spirit of his art with all the enthusiasm and vigor of his whole being.

CUBS LEAD REDUCED

Chicago, Oct. 13.—With the Chicago Cubs lead in the city series reduced to one game, the Sox lined up today to attempt to even the score.

The count was made two to one in favor of the National League team yesterday when "Red" Faber, veteran Sox hurler, held the Cubs to six hits, and the Sox won 4 to 2. The Cubs used three pitchers and first baseman Frieberg trotted the circuit after a hot one to the bleachers, but they lost.

Yesterday's game was witnessed by more than 25,000.

CASEY'S MOTHER KNEW IT

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 13.—"We knew Charlie was a long ways from being through as a baseball player yet," said Mrs. Louis Stengel, Casey Stengel's mother today. Casey, once regarded as a worn-out fielder, has won two games off the Giants with home runs during the world series. During the winter he lives with his mother and sister here.

"I am mighty grateful to McGraw for giving Charlie a new chance," said the mother, "I guess for a while Mr. McGraw and I were the only ones who thought the boy could play base ball. Our confidence in his ability has not proven unwarranted."

to swing around, and head in the opposite direction. The force of the collision sent the touring car and the two occupants against the curb, breaking down the front right wheel, throwing the broken windshield into the faces and laps of the two men, and badly wrecking the car.

The Ford roadster suffered a broken and badly bent radiator in the collision. Theobald is employed at Knightstown, according to his story, and resides in Decatur county, and he was enroute to his home.

The two injured men were taken into the residence of B. T. Madden, 833 North Main street, where Dr. M. C. Sexton was called and attended to their injuries, and they were later removed to their homes. Monroe was able to be at work today, but Arney was too badly bruised to be out.

According to Monroe, his lights were not working well on his machine when he left the car shops, and as he attempted to cross Main street in Ninth, he was blinded by a car approaching from the west, but thought he had plenty of time to clear the crossing before the other machine from the north would get there.

He said that the machine from the north was speeding and did not clear his machine, the rear end being struck.

Testimony and witnesses will be called for the session Tuesday night in police court in an effort to place the blame for the accident.

counties are being urged to attend that meeting. It is estimated that there are from 100 to 150 members of the Edwards family living in Shelby county, who are said to be entitled to a share in the New York estate. At a recent meeting in Indianapolis, held by members of the Edwards family of this section, it was stated that there are at least 1,000 members of the family scattered over nine states of this part of the country.

Claims of the family are based on the alleged expiration of a lease given by the Trinity Corporation, of New York City, to Robert Edwards in 1660. Attorneys interested in the case believe that this lease expired in 1779, but the Trinity Corporation continued to hold the possession of the property and still has the estate. It is estimated that the estate is worth from $850,000,000 to $1,000,000,000.

Fifteen members of the family, living in Shelby and Rush counties attended the meeting Thursday.

but about eleven o'clock called to Miss Esther Mengler, who stays at the Reeves home. Miss Mengler hurried to the bedside of Mrs. Reeves, and the latter remarked that she believed that she was going to die. Although Mrs. Reeves protested, Miss Mengler summoned a physician and also Charles Reeves a son and a few minutes after their arrival Mrs. Reeves succumbed.

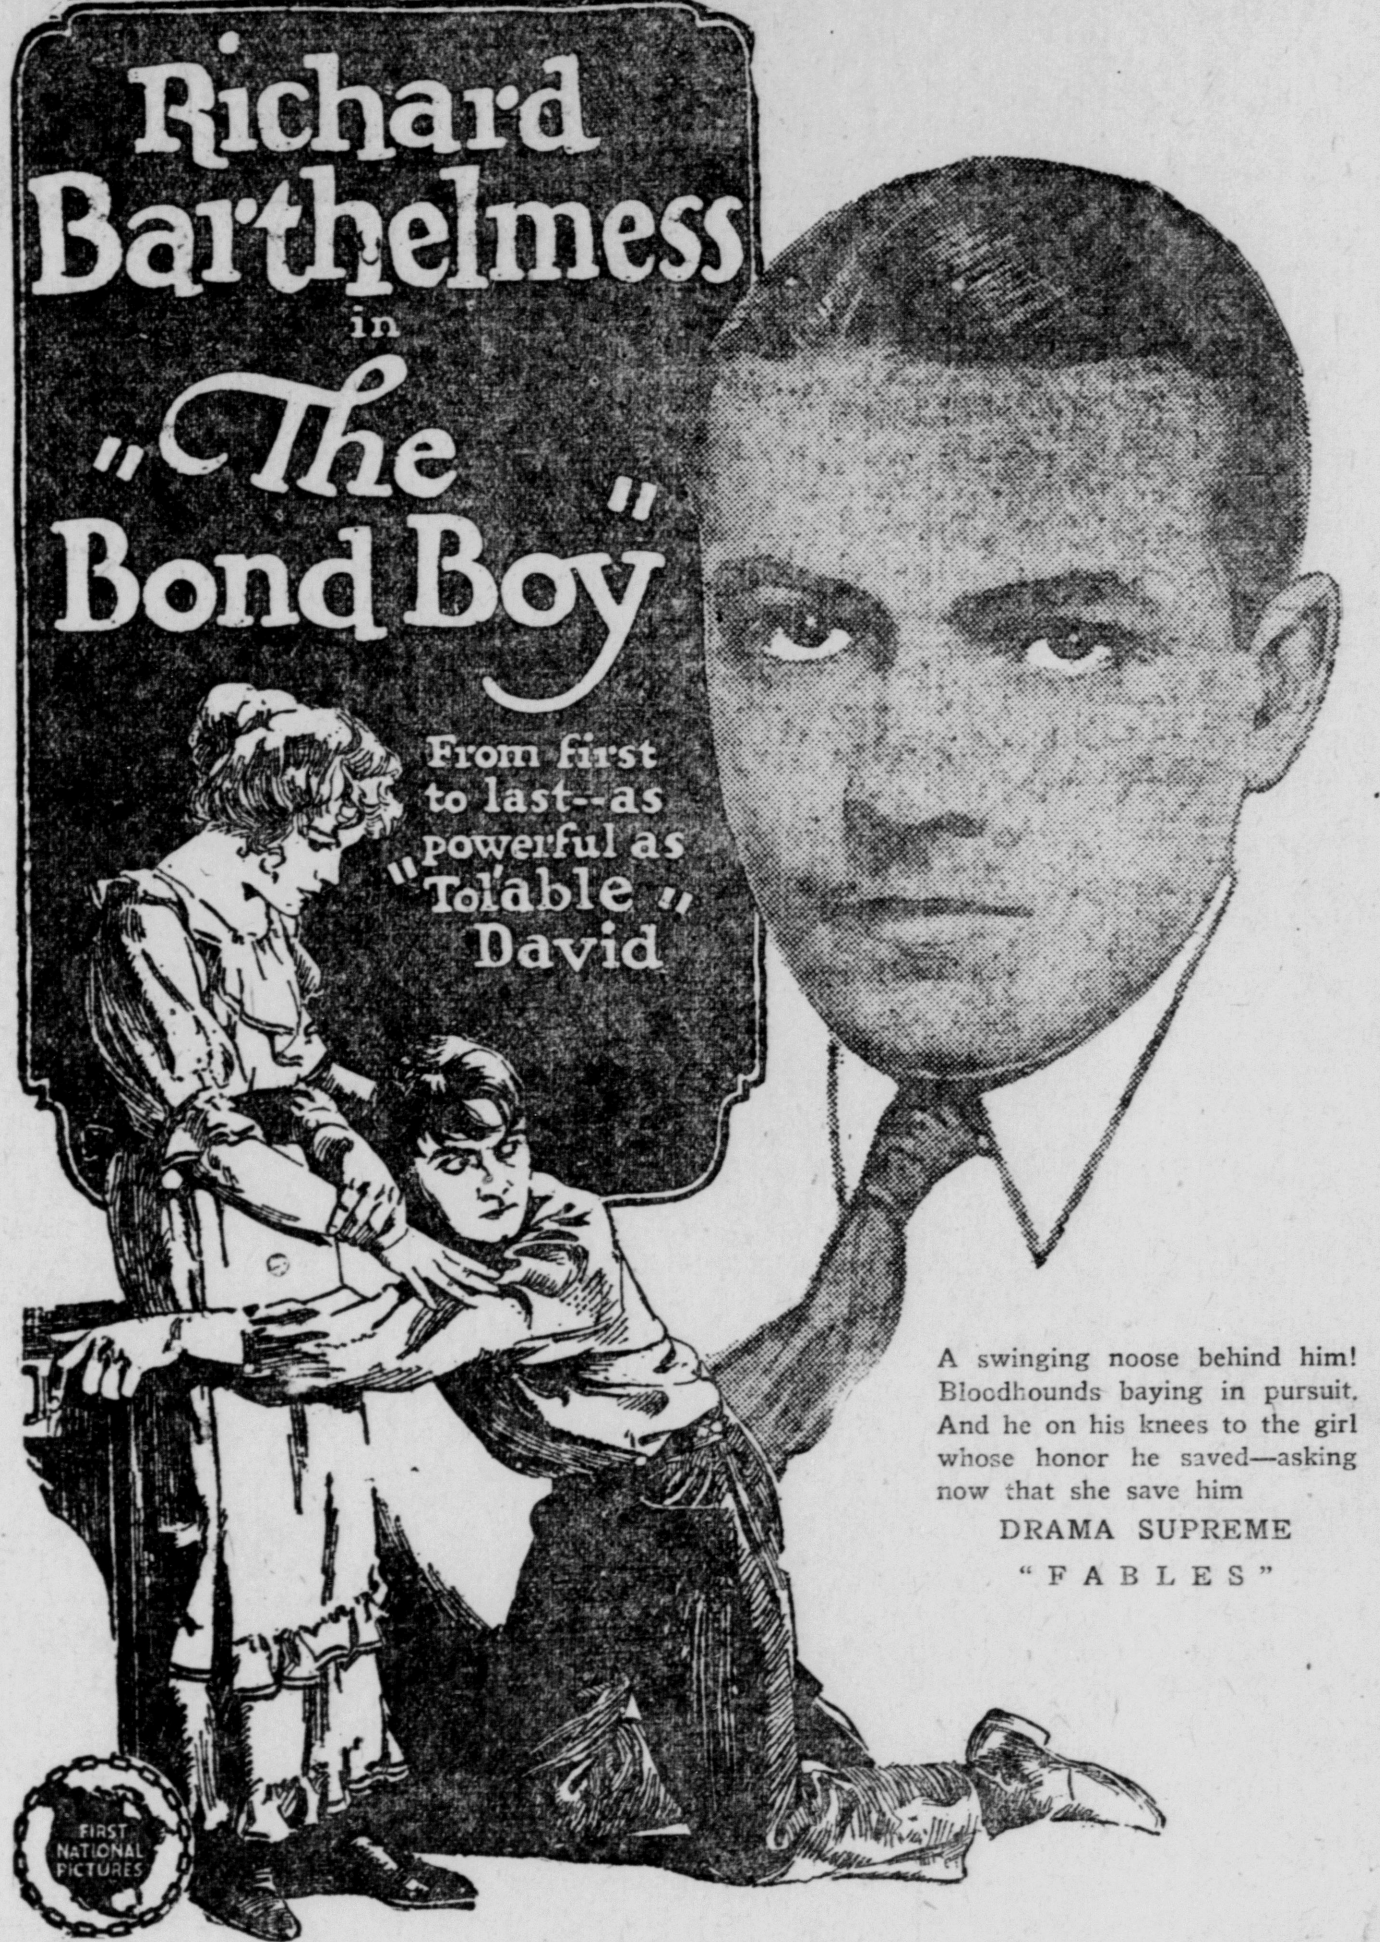

On July 13, 1849 Mrs. Reeves whose maiden name was Nancy Jane Kirkpatrick, was born in Rush county, where she lived the early part of her life. On September 11, 1856 she was united in marriage to Milton M. Reeves, and in 1880 the couple moved from Kokomo to this city. Mr. Reeves passed away August 20, 1890. Mrs. Reeves had continuously resided in this city since first locating here, and during that time she had made many sincere friends, all of whom as well as the relatives, suffered shock at her sudden death.

Mrs. Reeves was of superior womanhood and hers was a most useful life. She was a woman possessed of a beautiful character, and her sincere friendship and love for all mankind was expressed daily in her deeds of kindness and help toward others. She was ever devoted to her home and family, and yet found time to participate in the activities of the Christian church of which she was a life-long member. For many years she had been a leader in the aid society work, and in all charitable movements and many homes throughout the city have been made happier and better by her unselfish giving and kindly guidance.

Mrs. Reeves was the mother of three children, two of whom like the husband, preceded her in death, they being Mrs. Ora S. Newsom who passed away September 8, 1908 and Mrs. Hazel Reeves Scott who died October 27, 1918. high-powered idea. Franklyn Farnum, as Bill Holt the nester, discovers a plot to burn his shack and run off his cattle. When the gang take hold of the barbed wire they find they are unable to release their hold and remain there until the sheriff arrives.

BACK ACHE
TERRIBLY

Mrs. Robinson Tells How She Found Relief by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Amarillo, Texas.—"My back was my greatest trouble. It would ache so that it would almost kill me and I would have cramps. I suffered in this way about three years; then a lady friend suggested that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had better health since, keep house and am able to do my work. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends as it has certainly given me great relief."—Mrs. C. B. Robinson, 608 N. Lincoln St., Amarillo, Tex.

The Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine for women. It relieves the troubles which cause such symptoms as backache, painful times, irregularity, tired and worn-out feelings and nervousness. This is shown again and again by such letters as Mrs. Robinson writes as well as by one woman telling another. These women know what it did for them. It is surely worth your trial.

Housewives make a great mistake in allowing themselves to become so ill that it is well-nigh impossible for them to attend to their necessary household duties.

MOVIES

"Action in 'A Man of Action'"

That's what photoplay fans want.

In "A Man of Action", now running at the Princess theatre, Thomas H. Ince has produced a mystery-comedy that's all action from start to finish.

"There's a little love, a plot the fans can't guess until the end, plenty of laughs and a big thrill. With never a minute's let-up, 'A Man of Action' is accurately described as a 'movie that moves.'"

Here's the plot in brief: Douglas MacLean plays a silk stocking youth with more dough than ambition. The girl he loves (Marguerite de la Motte) has enough pep for a whole boarding school. She drives him out to do something—and he does.

We'll say he does. He gets mixed up with a band of crooks, who black-jack him into robbing his own home. What a mix-up. Cops, crooks and kisses.

The cast of "A Man of Action" is a strong one. Douglas MacLean is a big favorite with the fans—especially the ladies. And Marguerite de la Motte, featured in "The Three Musketeers" has the principal feminine role.

"The Firebrand" Mystic

"The Firebrand," at the Mystic today, is the story of a nester holding his small tract of land in the face of most adverse opposition, and overcoming the obstacles that force him to vacate his homestead. He not only gains the upper hand at every turn but aids the local sheriff in capturing a gang of dangerous cattle rustlers, forcing the gang down a deep well for safekeeping until the sheriff arrives. And after defeating old Judd Auker, the neighboring rancher, in his attempts to make him leave, he quietly informs that gouty old individual that he has been married to his daughter Alice for a year.

"The Firebrand" introduces a new method of capturing outlaws, a very

A Resume of Week's Activities in Schools of Various Townships, Dealing With Athletics and Scholarship

The County School Reflector

(Edited by the Students)

Carthage, Center, Gings, Glenwood, New Salem, Milroy, Moscow, Webb, Arlington, Manilla, Homer, Raleigh

THE RALEIGH SCHOOL

The Raleigh team's record of last year is nothing to boast of, but by retaining all of the regulars and adding others to the squad, we fully expect to see a marked improvement when they appear on the floor for the 1923-24 season.

M. Craig with his clever dribbling and floor work will probably be the equal of any center in our county circle. Clifton, Arnold and G. Craig have qualities for their forward positions that should add many thrills to our county contests.

We fully expect to see several of our opponent's offensive "plays" "mussed up" by Rider, Newkirk, Gordon and Bingham from their guarding position, and an occasional "long ranger" to add spice to our games.

We are looking forward to one of the most closely contested basketball seasons in the history of Rush county, and in submitting the following schedule, we anticipate great success for Raleigh:

- Nov. 2—At Cambridge City.
- Nov. 9—With Fairview.
- Nov. 16—At Moscow.
- Nov. 23—At Webb.
- Nov. 28—With Carthage.
- Dec. 7—At Morristown.
- Dec. 8—With Carthage.
- Dec. 14—With Milroy.
- Dec. 21—With Cambridge City.
- Jan. 11—With Moscow.
- Jan. 18—At Arlington.
- Jan. 24—At Milroy.
- Jan. 25—At Morristown.
- Feb. 2—County tourney.
- Feb. 8—At Fairview.
- Feb. 9—Carthage tourney.
- Feb. 15—With Webb.
- Feb. 22—With Arlington.
- Feb. 29—Sectional tourney.

HOMER SCHOOL

(Beulah Willis, Editor)

Many improvements have been made in the Homer school since last year. Electric lights have been installed in the building, the walls have been repainted, several new books added to the library and we are now using a systematic way of lending the books.

Teachers Are Praised

We have fine teachers this year.

Luther J. Arend, principal, is a graduate of State Normal. Howard W. Clawson of Manilla teaches the seventh and eighth grades and high school history. Mrs. Marjorie Bell of Rushville teaches the fifth and sixth grades and domestic science. Miss Orpha Wagoner, who attended Muncie college, teaches the third and fourth, and Miss Vida Frow has charge of the primary room. Miss Frow attended Bloomington college. Miss Nelle Merrill teaches music and art. She is an experienced teacher.

Ten in High School

The enrollment in high school this year is only ten pupils, but we have a splendid high school. We are enjoying our English work very much. We have been studying "Written and Spoken English" by Clippinger, and have been finding much enjoyment in oral compositions.

Weiner Roast

Friday night, October 5 the high school and seventh and eighth grades had a weiner roast at the home of George Meid, one mile east of Homer. Thirty-five persons were present. All had an enjoyable time. We had a large supply of weiners, buns and marshmallows. Games were played both before and after the "feast".

County Officials Visit

The high school boys are making some interesting experiments in Biology. The grade boys are studying agriculture. Donald Ball, agricultural agent, was just a little too late Friday to visit their classes, but he seemed much pleased with their work. Birney D. Farthing, county superintendent, also paid a visit to the school on Friday.

Parent-Teacher's Meeting

The teachers and officers met Friday at the school house to arrange for a parent-teacher's meeting to be held Tuesday, October 16. The officers are: Mrs. William Webster, president; Russell Johnson, vice president; Mrs. Doreia Callahan, secretary and Conrad Posz, treasurer.

Tests Given Pupils

Tuesday, October 9, four inspectors came to our school and gave us some mental tests. Approximately two hours were required for these tests.

CENTER SCHOOL

The faculty of the Center school is principal, F. C. Landrus; science, history, commercial arithmetic and music: Edna Swart, Latin, English 7th and 8th grammar: Esther Schlager, mathematics, home economics and art; Lowell DeMoss, seventh and eighth grades and agriculture; Elvena Goode, fifth and sixth grades.

Speaks of Mormons

Miss Schlager gave a very interesting talk on "The Mormon People" for opening exercises last Thursday. The hospitality of the Mormons was especially emphasized.

Mr. DeMoss is coaching the boys in track work.

The boys have organized three basketball teams and have chosen the following captains, first team, Merrill Reddick; second team, Russell Apple; third team, Golay Meek. The high school girls have purchased a new basketball.

MOSCOW SCHOOL

The senior class of the M. H. S. met the other day and elected new officers, George McAhren was elected president; Thompson Tillison, vice president, and Carlos Reber, secretary and treasurer. The class colors are cardinal and white. The class flower is the American Beauty.

Junior Class Elects

The Junior class met Tuesday, October 2 to elect class officers; Wanda Rieck, the retiring president, presided. The following were elected: Merle Alexander, president; Georgia Lanning, vice president; Helen Solomon, secretary treasurer; Dorothy Alexander, chairman of social committee and Esther Solomon, class editor. So far we have chosen neither class flower nor motto. We have our class colors, old rose and silver which we selected last year. Although our class is the smallest in school, having only nine members, we feel that it is quality that counts and not the quantity.

Sophomores Organize

We are again back to M. H. S. with only one new addition. There are eighteen in the class at present. The class has been organized and the following officers elected; Charles Campbell, president; Victoria Solo-man, vice president; Lillian Gahmer, secretary and treasurer; class editor, Victoria Solomon and sponsor, Mr. Baas. The class colors are green and pink. The class flower is pink rose bud. We are improving wonderfully in all studies under the instruction of our teachers.

Freshmen Active

The Freshman class held a class meeting when the following officers were elected: Bertha Cole, president; Kathleen Reber, vice president; and Eva Kuntz, secretary-treasurer. Green and white were chosen as the class colors, pink rose, class flower and the motto is "B2 and B's".

Twenty Out For Basketball

The Moscow high school basketball team is again coached by L. E. Means, former Franklin hardwood star. A large force is out this year, about twenty boys coming out for practice each night. Gosnell, Tillison, B. Hungerford, Alexander and Whisman are the veterans from last year's team. Around these five stars, Coach Means expects to build one of the fastest and hardest playing aggregations in the county. Coach Means is working the team hard for their first game which will be October 27 with New Salem. On October 26, Moscow second team will clash with the Waldron second team. Some of the new men are Robert Hurst, Raymond Hurst, Reber, Casey, Coers, Creed, Spaulding, Roberts, Cole, Campbell, and Thompson. Howard Hungerford, former Webb star, is showing his wares to Coach Means and probably will make the team.

Girls Are Practicing

The girls are practicing some but will be a few days before they will be ready to take the floor. There are a few new ones out for the team this year. The team was hurt by graduation last year. Wanda Rieck, Jesse May Parker, Mary Whisman and Dewese Tomes are the veterans. Some of the new players are Marilyn Hungerford, Leona Miller, Vivian Gahmer, Alice Parker, Beryl Hunt-ington, Ethel Peck, and Opal Willey.

The following is the schedule for the varsity basketball team: October 27—New Salem at Moscow. November 3—At Morristown. November 10—Waldron at Moscow. November 16—Raleigh at Moscow. November 24—At Arlington. November 28—Webb at Moscow. December 8—Newpoint at Moscow (pending). December 14—At Manilla. December 21—Morristown at Moscow.

January 4—At Carthage. January 5—At Westport. January 11—At Raleigh. January 18—At Waldron. January 26—Open. February 2—County tourney. February 8—Arlington at Moscow. February 5—Webb at Moscow. February 22—Manilla at Moscow. Note—All games scheduled with Moscow will be played at the gymnasium at Blue Ridge.

GINGS SCHOOL

Tuesday morning, September 25, for opening exercises, the Juniors entertained the assembly. First the Primary grades sang "The Lady Bug." Arthur Courtner, was chairman; Joe Custer, read the original verses made by the students in the assembly and Ruth Billings played an instrumental solo.

Sophomores Entertain

On Tuesday, October 2, the Sophomores gave the entertainment. Alice Aikens was appointed chairman and she certainly was on duty. Quartet was given by Mildred Billings, Clara Courtner, Alice Aikens and Helen Kennedy. A dialogue entitled "Courtship Under Difficulties" was given by Naomi Nash, Clyde Gordon and Franklin Felts. Naomi Nash played the part of "Prudence" who was courted by "Mr. Jones" played by Clyde Gordon. Franklin Felts as "Snobletton" made courtship difficult for Mr. Jones. The Sophomores were heartily applauded and Mrs. Ross had quite a few chuckles.

Next Tuesday morning the Freshmen will entertain.

Domestic Science Girls Serve

The Junior and Sophomore girls served hot chocolate to the school last Friday. They are taking domestic science under their instructor, Mrs. Ross. Everyone agreed that the chocolate was delicious and wanted them to serve it again soon.

Wins Base Ball Game

Due to timely hitting Ging won a well played game Tuesday evening on the ball ground at Ging. R. McCulloch pitching for Ging, struck out 13 batters and walked one man. Hackleman, pitching for Fairview, struck out 7 batters and walked three men. Both teams fielded fairly well. Score inning by inning:

1. R. McCulloch fanned the first three men that faced him, neither team scored.
2. Fairview scored two runs and Gings scored three runs.
3. Fairview scored three and Gings two.
4. Fairview one and Gings nothing.
5. Fairview failed to score with two men out and with Fairview's one run in the lead, Felts came to bat and saved the game by scoring. G. McCulloch and getting safely to first himself. Custer followed with a home run and the game was safely tucked away. The final score was 7 to 6 in favor of Ging. The winners lined up as follows: Richard Pratt, c.; Arthur Courtner, 3b.; Adrian Eckart, 2b.; Franklin Felts, 1b.; Donald Rees, cf.; Clyde Gordon, and Robert Meyer, rf.; Glenn McCulloch, cf.; Robert McCulloch, p.

CARTHAGE SCHOOL

The Carthage schools began September 10 with the following enrollments, Grades 191; Junior high school 79; senior high school 48; and Booker T. Washington, grade school, 17. Until the new building is completed grades Five and Six will hold sessions at the auditorium and the Junior and Senior high school will occupy the second floors of the old building.

Form Athletic Association

C. H. S. has organized an athletic association composed of all students that have a passing grade in three subjects. The said association has adopted a constitution and the following officers have been elected for the first semester: Gilbert Glover, president; Marjory Henley, vice president, and Josephine Herkless, secretary-treasurer. Assisting the officers are the board of control, a faculty adviser, and several committees. This association will have charge of all athletic activities, both financially and otherwise for the coming season.

Girls Team Practicing

The girls basketball team began practice recently under the supervision of Miss Taylor, coach, and Miss Elliott, manager. The unfinished schedule reports two games each with Webb, Raleigh and Arlington. Candidates for the first team squad are: Brennan, Herkless, Johnson, Hahn, M. Henley, R. Henley, B. Henley, Moore and Theobald.

Commercial Course Popular

The new Commercial course taught by Miss Carfield has proved to be very popular among the students of Senior high. Six new typewriters have been installed in the Commercial room and besides typewriting Miss Carfield instructs in shorthand, book-keeping and commercial law.

Squad Getting in Shape

The Carthage high school basketball squad is whipping itself into shape for the opener on next Wednesday night, when they take on Fortville at Carthage.

Coach Zartman has been putting the team through extra licks and the best team in years is the early prediction of those who have seen the team work. The squad this year will probably be made up of Kennedy, Glover, Hahn, E. Moore, F. Moore, Heim Renegar, Siler and Alexander.

Carthage has the foundation of most of last year's players, and with much new material on hand, the coach will have plenty to pick a winning team. The schedule this year is a strong one, and has been completed. It is as follows:

- Oct. 17—Fortville here.
- Oct. 26—Webb here.
- Nov. 2—Manilla there.
- Nov. 9—Fortville there.
- Nov. 16—Morristown here.
- Nov. 17—Arlington there.
- Nov. 23—Milroy there.
- Nov. 28—Raleigh there.
- Dec. 8—Raleigh here.
- Dec. 12—Arlington here.
- Dec. 14—Knightsdown there.

WEBB SCHOOL

Girls Team Successful

Webbs Girl Team has been very successful in the last year. The only game which they lost last year was played at Carthage, when two of the regulars were off.

Among the teams which they defeated last year were: Manilla, Raleigh, Moscow, Arlington, Milroy, Rushville and New Salem.

Although Mildred Carwein, a regular forward, graduated last year their line-up should be even stronger than that of last with the addition of the following players: Helen Jones, Edith Lower and Farnes Dodgeon.

Webb Has New Principal

This year marks the beginning of Mr. Vernal Klipsch's career as a principal. This first month proves to all of us that he is a very capable and very willing to fulfill his duties. We are quite sure that under his guidance, this year will go down in the history of Webb as the most successful of all years.

Coach Has Good Record

Howard Patterson of New Salem, Indiana, a student of Purdue University from 1919-1921 has been engaged as coach this year. For the past two years he taught in Fountain City, Wayne county. He had a very successful year there last year. His team winning eighteen games out of twenty-three, which they played. His team played Richmond in the Finals, when Richmond went to the State Tournament.

Domestic Science Work

The domestic science class of the Webb school consists of eighteen members of the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades in charge of Miss Smith.

Hot lunches are served each day at the noon hour to the teachers and domestic science girls. The expenses are partially covered by charging a small sum for each meal.

Any one wishing a good meal drop in the Webb school about noon and receive a fair sample.

School Interior Decorated

We registered approval as we entered the building the first day of school when we saw freshly tinted walls, repainted wood work, and re-varnished desks, but one other thing we had yet to learn about was the new gilt on the radiators. The first day that Teek fixed up the furnace, the smoke nearly suffocated us.

But brightening up the building does make the pupils brighter-you know. We are trying to show how much we appreciate this great change by keeping the building as bright and clean as we found it.

Seniors Entertain

Friday night September the 28th the Seniors entertained the Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors with a weiner roast at Webb's Ford. After about fifteen couples had enjoyed the camp light for an hour, the part started to rushville. Some of the party evidently forgot where they started for they failed to make an appearance. John Sefton turned out to let a culvert pass and had to call for help. We suppose the machine became frightened. Lowell Osborn was very much alarmed at the cry for help and went through town like a bird. The cop did not see any wings on him so he pinched Lowell for speeding.

The remainder of the party saw "Scars of Jealousy" at the Princess Theatre after which they attended a dance at Bertha Martin's. The dance was a great success. Outside of all our troubles we had a wonderful evening and hope the other classes will be able to show the seniors a good time before long.

Ban On Cigarettes

Mr. Patterson stated that he did not want any student who smoked on the team. He further stated that if he saw any member of the squad smoking, he would be requested to turn in his suit on the following day. So boys its can the smoking or get canned.

NEW SALEM

Each class of the high school should give its news to the secretary who will give it to Dorothy Wilson. After being censored by one of the teachers, it will be sent to the publisher.

Freshmen Lead

The grades for the first month were out Wednesday, the Freshmen leading in the percent of attendance. Those on the honor roll were Freshmen, Gail Browning, and Evelyn Cooke; Sophomores, Deloris Miller and Mary Heaton; Seniors, Mildred Wilson.

School will be dismissed on Thursday and Friday of next week to enable the teachers to attend the Teacher's Association at Indianapolis.

Basketball Hopes Blasted

Our expectations in regards to the promising basketball season are blasted as "Happy" Warner has sprained his wrist.

Wanted: A young man with an adding machine and a strong arm to keep basketball scores for New Salem coming season. Apply A. Jinks, coach.

Fred Wilson, who has been absent for two days, has returned to school. Several members of the Sophomore class attended the Service-Progress special exhibition at Rushville Monday evening.

"Prince" Albert has introduced a tobacco reform among the boys of the high school here.

NOT IN GOOD CONDITION

Deputy State Bank Examiner Will Make Thorough Investigation of
Its Affairs

Kentland, Ind., Oct. 13.—The doors of the Discount and Deposit Bank, Kentland, of which Gov. Warren T. McCray was formerly president, were closed today.

Closing of the bank, one of McCray's chief creditors, came on action of the board of directors, led by William Darroch, new president. "We want to get away from the odium of old associations and possible complications which may come up and for that reason we are closing the bank to reorganize," Darroch explained.

"We want to get away from all this rot and unpleasant publicity," he asked whether the bank was in good condition, Darroch said he could not say that it was.

"If the bank were in good condition it would be open and in operation."

To Examine Its Affairs

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 13.—Thomas Barr, deputy state bank examiner, told the United Press today he had been informed of the closing of the Discount and Deposit State Bank at Kentland, Ind., and would leave immediately to make "a thorough examination of its affairs."

ACTS TO COMPLY WITH STATE LAW

Rush County Farmers Insurance Association to Come Under State Supervision

BY-LAWS TO CONFORM WITH IT Report of Actuary Read at Annual Meeting Today, Showing Increase of Insurance

Resolutions were to be adopted at this afternoon's session of the Rush County Farmers Insurance association, to comply with the new state law providing for state regulation of co-operative insurance companies.

A new board of directors, consisting of five members, was also to be elected, and the directors will elect the officers. State regulation of the company will become effective January 1, according to the terms of the new statute, and the Rush county company prepared for the change ahead of time. Correction of the constitution and by-laws was scheduled for today, as this was the time for the annual meeting, which will not necessitate the calling of a special session.

The board of directors was to be increased from three to five members, because the law provides for a minimum number of five and a maximum of fifteen on the board. The present officers are W. A. Alexander, president; O. M. Harton, vice president, and L. R. Webb, secretary.

After January first, the books of the company will be examined by state agents, just as banks are examined.

Two persons were injured in an automobile accident Friday night shortly after six o'clock, when machines driven by Charley Monroe, 1016 North Arthur street, and Harry Theobald, R. F. D. 2, Greensburg, collided at the corner of Ninth and Main streets, damaging both machines.

Monroe sustained a deep gash over his right eye, which barely missed hitting the eye ball. The two injured men were employed at the J. & C. car shops and were going west in Ninth street toward their homes. Theobald was driving his Ford roadster south in Main, and collided with the rear end of the Monroe Ford touring car, causing it

Members of the fire department are getting ready to hang up a crepe on their door. With the nation observing Fire Prevention week, Rushville has observed it to the letter for a solid month. Not a single alarm or run has been answered by the department since September 13, and it has been almost two months since a line of hose was laid for a fire.

The record for the year, however, is 65 runs, which lacks only 2 of equalling the total for last year. The fire loss so far this year is exceptionally low, and is less than $2,000. Chief Williamson's motto today is "Knock on wood."

Will Participate in K. of P. Trabue
Jollification Monday

All but one of the grand officers of the Knights of Pythias lodge, invited to the Trabue jollification meeting here Monday night, have consented to come, the committee in charge of arrangements announced today. The Rushville lodge decided at the regular meeting last Monday night to celebrate the elevation of one of its members, Samuel L. Trabue, to an office in the grand lodge, which will result eventually in him becoming grand chancellor of Indiana.

Representatives of other fraternal orders have been invited and the Pythian Sisters will also participate. No definite program for the event had been arranged today.

JURY CONVICTED DINKENS

Mamie Wewee Leisure And Jack
Wewee Released Without Bond—
New Complaints Filed

James Dinkens, age 31, and James Palmer, age 23, defendants in a burglary case were arraigned this morning in the circuit court before Judge Sparks, who passed sentence on them. Dinkens, who was found guilty this week by a jury, was given a 10 to 20 year sentence at the state prison.

Palmer entered a plea of guilty, and he was given a similar sentence, which was suspended as long as he behaves himself. Judge Sparks gave Palmer a stiff lecture, and impressed upon him that the next time he was cited for any trouble, the sentence would be invoked, without trial.

The two men were implicated in the robbery of the Big Four railroad station here in August 1921, when it was charged that $600 worth of merchandise was stolen from the freight room.

Two prisoners held in jail for forty days have been released without bond, and told to report for trial on October 22. There prisoners were Mamie Wewee Leisure and her brother, Jack Wewee, charged with encouraging delinquency.

Several new complaints have been filed in circuit court, and included in the list is a divorce suit filed by Katie M. Newman against Donald

CAST FOR "APRIL" MAKING PROGRESS

All Three Acts Have Been Memorized
And Stage Positions And Impersonations Are Being Learned

CHANGES IN CAST

Tickets Are Selling Fast And A
Full House For Both Nights
Is Predicted

Rehearsals on the home talent show, "April," to be given here the 25th and 26 of this month, are progressing splendidly according to Denning Havens, coach and director for the production. The members of cast have learned their parts and adapted themselves to the characters in a remarkably short time.

They have almost finished memorizing the lines assigned them and are working hard on their stage positions and impersonations, the important part in putting over a show of any kind. With the coaching that they will receive from now on until time for the first performance, they should be well polished and capable of putting on a show that no one should miss, according to those watching progress of the rehearsals.

The cast has been somewhat altered since it was published, some being shifted to other parts and a new member or two added. The new arrangements promises to be even better than the way it was before putting some in parts that they were much better adapted to than the others.

Lavienna Compton takes a heavy role in the part of "April Blair," a book agent who in the play assumes the part of another character "Tot Marvel." She takes the part with the ease of a veteran, having much previous experience in amateur stage productions and coaching at an elocution school. In the part of "April" she is in many predicaments on the stage that are as pathetic as they are humorous.

Albert Cotton is at the height of his fun making spirit and off hand remarks in the part of "Richard Barrington." No better person could have been picked for the part for he doesn't act on the stage; he is just natural. However, his part is a hard one to hold down and his previous experience shows in his easy stage bearings and impersonations. The part of "Mrs. Lucy Barrington," the aunt of "Dick Barrington" is brought out well by Thelma Fanning whose personality is well portrayed when she assumes the part of an older lady on the stage.

Gene Kelly is well adapted to his part of "William Cartton," a pious gentleman and friend of the Barrington household. He looks and acts the part well at rehearsals and promises to put his part over well in the entertainment.

The part of "Peggy Cartton," his wife, is taken by Magdaline Arbuckle who is unusually well suited to her part. She has that sedate air and characteristics that are peculiar to this part and yet drops the self-consciousness that is apt to go hand in hand with a part of this sort.

A double role is taken by William Worthington, better known as just plain "Bill." He portrays his part of James Schooley, a preacher of Platt, Nebraska, well and then at the same time carries the part "Foster," the gardener, which is altogether different from the from the first mentioned.

Mention of his ability on the stage is hardly necessary and he is carrying his parts through in this show

GOOD PROGRESS MADE IN WORK ON INDIANA STATE HIGHWAYS

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 13. — Although the extremely wet season delayed work all over the state, good progress has been made on most of the projects the past week, declares John D. Williams, director of the state highway department, in the commission's weekly traffic bulletin issued today showing the condition of state roads for the week of October 14-20.

Mr. Williams said that the detour between Ossian and Bluffton has been raised. Excellent progress is reported on the heavy rock cut north of Bedford which is rapidly nearing completion. Construction work on State Road 7 west of Logansport is completed and the road open to traffic. The huge fills north of Clinton will be completed in the next few days.

A contract has been let, the bulletin says, and work started on paving a mile on Road No. 8 just south of Gary. It is expected to complete this work this fall which will give continuous pavement on one side of the road between Gary and the Lincoln Highway at Merrillville. The resurfacing project east of Valparaiso is being rapidly completed and the long detour at this place will be raised in less than two weeks. However, a short detour will continue a week or so to complete the work in the city limits of Valparaiso.

Mr. Williams pointed out that resurfacing work north of Portland has made slow progress owing to a bridge being out necessitating a longer haul of materials. A temporary bridge has just been installed and progress is being expedited. Slow progress is being made also as resurfacing the Paoli road west of New Albany because the contractor failed to procure the necessary amount of asphalt. The commission hopes to have this road open to traffic before December 1.

Summarizing the condition of the state system Mr. Williams said that while the dry weather of the past few weeks aided greatly the construction work retarded earlier in the season because of rain, it is leaving gravel and stone roads very dusty, but this is a condition that can not be overcome. The whole organization is working to the end that construction move forward as rapidly as possible before cold weather stops work, because it is desired that the system go into the winter with as few detours as possible.

with the same winning personality that has marked his efforts in other home talent productions. Irish dialogue in the part of "Foster," the gardener, will furnish many laughs for the audience.

Denning Havens will also have a part in the show as well as direct it. He will furnish one of the high lights of the show as "Bill Drum," press agent for the "Snap-It-Up" show company. American slang is carried to its utmost in this part and every word is a laugh while it adds materially to the plot of the company.

"Tot Marvel," a chorous beauty with a "Devil-may-care" air always is taken by Lillian Wilkinson. She has mastered her part to perfection and promises to be an interesting character in the production.

She is fearless at all times, telling everyone just where to head in and does it in a manner that is very humorous.

The part of "Watts" the butler, was made to order for Jack Neilly and he is not slighting it in any way. He has that stiff formality that is customary to a butler and a better person could not be wanted for the part.

Lawrence Adams, one of the new high school teachers, was picked for Michael, the chauffeur. While his part is not as heavy as some of the others, it is always essential when he appears on the stage. The audience will think he is a real chauffeur rather than just acting the part when they see him, so well does he handle himself.

Wade Dill makes a real-for-sure-enough sheriff in his portion of the comedy as "Simpson," the sheriff. Dill just can't help from being hard boiled (on the stage) anyhow so what better sheriff could be asked for?

The jobs of "Annie" the maid, and "Maggie," the cook, are taken by Hazel Dugle and Margaret Oster, respectively, and they make real servants, too, on the stage. The have both had previous experience in home talent productions and are very much at ease on the stage at all times.

With a cast of this kind and an able director, the show promises to be a great success. From the way that the tickets are already selling, a full house for both nights is already predicted.

OBEDIENCE:—If ye love Me, keep my commandments.—John 14: 15.

Points Way to Better Country Life

To enable farmers to enjoy modern schools, libraries, hospitals, and recreation centers seems less a question of per capita wealth and income than it is a problem of grouping rural communities so that the cost is distributed among the largest possible number of people. Dr. C. J. Galpin of the United States department of agriculture pointed out at the Farm Home Conference at Purdue University, this week. Dr. Galpin cautioned his hearers, however, that groupings of taxing areas for such purposes should not be too large. Dr. Galpin compared briefly the total income of the farm population and the total income of people not on farms as reported by the National Bureau of Economic Research. He said that studies in various sections of the country indicated that in 1919

the per capita income of farmers compared favorably with that of city people. In a number of states the per capita farm income equalled or exceeded the per capita income of other people in the state.

"The consolidated school movement points the way for other institutions in rural districts," Dr. Galpin said. "To enable farmers to afford modern grade schools it was necessary to make the school districts larger. A similar method for the support of libraries, recreation centers, hospitals and high schools can probably be worked out."

Monopoly or Competition?

It is a fundamental principle of socialistic teachings that state monopoly in any line of service is to do away with competition.

As a general principle, government service is only efficient when it meets the direct stimulus of competition with private enterprise.

Postal charges compete with express and insurance and banking rates maintained by private corporations that carry on successfully.

Socialistic propaganda continually seeks to take away all private competition and thus fasten upon the public governmental monopoly.

Complete governmental monopoly brings stagnation to any country, for it kills the initiative and enterprise of its citizens.

Cut Taxes to Increase Receipts

Congressman Madden of the House committee on appropriations proposes a revision of income taxes downward, all the way from the smallest taxable income to the largest.

Secretary Mellon backed elimination of the excess profits tax and reduction of the surtax.

Experience has proved that the government would receive a greater total tax income from the reduced tax.

The higher taxes drove capital into tax-exempt securities.

As long as high income taxes tend to drive otherwise productive capital into tax-exempt securities it may not be reached.

At the same time this stimulation of the sale of tax-exempt securities is adding to taxpayers' burdens by increasing local and state taxes.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

Miss Vivian Vance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Vance of East Fifth street, entertained a number of her juvenile friends yesterday afternoon, it being her third birthday anniversary.

The Misses Helen Monjar and Lenore Wooden pleasantly entertained sixteen of their girl friends with a dance at the home of Mrs. Maude Reed last night.

He's coming. The next president of the United States will speak in this city on October 23. And that's just one week from next Friday. Since it was announced that W. H. Taft, candidate for president, would make an itinerary in Indiana there has been a lingering hope here that he would come through this city. The plan of the three days trip was announced last night and Rushville is in the lucky list.

Roy Steele had a miraculous escape from death at Milroy Tuesday afternoon, and is in a serious condition. While driving east on Main street in Milroy his team was struck by a Big Four through freight about three o'clock. Both horses were instantly killed and Steele was severely shaken up and his foot badly crushed. Whether or not he is internally injured physicians have not been able to tell.

Never before was there such a scene in a railway station as was witnessed last night, where hundreds of people tried to buy tickets for the Watson Special to Columbus. Pandemonium reigned but all kept in good humor. John Tittsworth acted as chaperon for the crowd of women who attended Mrs. Watson and it was with the greatest effort that he succeeded in securing a place for them on the stage. Miss Alice Norris led a howling host of women up the streets of Columbus and they got a cheer all along the line. To get an idea of the brand of enthusiasm unbridled one need but chronicle the doing of one of the musical organizations aboard the special. Herbert Flint, Lon Stewart, Albert Capp, Walter Hubbard, Ben Norris, Court Levi and "Red" Kramer's butcher formed a Florida sextette that went from coach to coach singing "We're here because we're here because." Watson was in bad voice last night, being so hoarse he could hardly be heard fifty feet away when he first began talking. Soon he warmed up and thawed out, making one of the best political speeches heard in Columbus.

HUNTERS MAY EXPECT BIG SEASON SPORT

Game Birds Are Plentiful in All Sections Of The State, According To Game Wardens

QUAIL SUPPLY IS STRONG

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 13. — Small wild game and game birds are more prevalent in Indiana woods and fields this year than in many decades, and hunters may expect a wonderful season's sport, declares George N. Mannfeld, chief of the fish and game division of the state conservation department in a bulletin just issued to 160 organized fish and game protective associations operating in Indiana to further wild and aquatic life.

His statement is made following a survey of the situation and from reports by game wardens, farmers and sportsmen from all sections of the state. Reports thus secured lead to the declaration that quail are more plentiful than at any time in 25 years. Such a condition was brought about, Mr. Mannfeld says, by observance of productive seasons, mild winters and the fact that the public generally cooperates with the conservation department.

Mr. Mannfeld reports that wardens in the past month arrested 172 persons for violating fish and game laws. One hundred and sixty-eight were convicted and paid fines and costs aggregating $3,155.10. One crew of two men working in southern Indiana made 15 convictions of people operating seines and nets.

Hands Are Almost Tied And If Blind
Falls Over Their Eyes, All Giants Need Do Is Shoot

YANKEES HAVE TO EVEN IT
Superb Pitching By Nehf, Fielding
By Groh And Homer By Stengel
Set Them Back

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
New York, Oct. 13. — With the Giants leading the chase again by one step, the world series were resumed this afternoon at the Polo Grounds when the Yankees will have to do or be done in the fourth game of the championship fight.

Down two games to one by virtue of the thrilling 1 to 0 victory of the Giants yesterday, the American League champions, have a lot more than their backs to the wall. Their hands are almost tied and if the blind falls over the eyes today the Giants shooting squad will have to do nothing but pull the trigger.

Gloomy slate colored clouds hung in the sky this morning. There was almost a mist in the air and the atmosphere was wet with impending rain. Interference of the weather jinx, which has threatened for several days, seemed imminent.

The Yankees know that they must even the count with the worlds champions today or their job is almost hopeless. One more victory by the Giants will impose upon the Yanks the task of winning three straight and such things aren't done often to McGraw's team.

Wally Pipp, the fine first baseman of the Yanks and one of the most important cogs in the machine will be out of the game today and he may not appear again in the series.
Pipp wrenched his lame ankle in sliding for second base and Miller Huggins said this morning that Pipp would not be able to play.

Superb pitching by Arthur Nehf who is the greatest money player in
who is the greatest money player in the game and the home run of the great Casey Stengel, set the Yankees back in the third contest.

Nehf had to be perfect to win from "Sad Sam Jones," the Yank squire. With two pieces of the most sensational fielding, Groh twice saved Nehf when it seemed he was about to fall under a rally and the timely clout of Old Casey Stengel furnished the punch that won the game.

Bob Meusel, the Yank left fielder was bitterly denounced by New York writers this morning and openly charged with insubordination for refusing to obey the order of Miller Huggins to bunt in the third inning after Dugan had doubled and Ruth had been passed with none out.
Meusel instead of bunting, laid into the ball and fell into a double play.
The Yankees had three good chances to score and two were nipped by double plays while the third was cut off by Heinie Groh's almost impossible stop and a headlong dive to third base in time for a force out.

Considering that all the experts regard yesterday's game as the turning point in the series, the Yank players were unusually optimistic yesterday and they feel absolutely confident that they will win today.
Babe Ruth, they point out, is a murdered in the Polo Grounds and if the Giants will pitch to him they claim he will break up the game.

Bitter feeling is springing up between the players on the two clubs.
Babe Ruth, under his signature, charged the Giants today with "dirty playing." He said that Snyder grabbed Ward's bat and prevented him from swinging at the third strike in the ninth inning of yesterday's game and that he had done the same thing in previous games.

The Giants are all "sore" at Ruth, claiming that the Babe was unnecessarily rough against Snyder and Kelly in the first and second games.
The champions pointed out meaningfully that they carry spikes just as big as the Babes.

With the edge on the Yankees now,
the Giants are in a position where McGraw can juggle a little bit with his pitchers and he will probably start Jack Scott today with Rosey Ryan ready to take up the labors
if the big farmer doesn't get along.
Bob Shawkey, still as steady as he ever was if his arm is not as good as before may get the call from Huggins and young Waite Hoyt will be ready in the bull pen.

Firpo Made Friends and Cash

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, Oct. 13.—In addition to accumulating a nice pile of money during the process of being built up as an opponent for Jack Dempsey, Luis Angel Firpo, the big South
American, made many friends.

There are those who maintain that the dollar is the best friend a man can get and the only one worth holding and it works both way for Firpo as the friends he acquired will be a very substantial means of increasing his earning power.

Firpo has smartly decided to spend a lot of his time in the United States and he is not actuated by purely mercenary motives. The South American likes the United States, he feels kindly toward the people and realizes that this country has been good to him.

There is no reason why Americans should not be nice to Firpo, and should not treat him hospitably. He is a very high class fellow, a likable chap and he has a wealth of personality.

All of the writers who followed Firpo through his training for the Dempsey fight grew to like him as most of them like the champion. Firpo's frankness, a quality of character that is rare among pugilists, gained for him a confidence from the newspapermen that he might well boast of. Few figures of professional sport have established the reputation for veracity that Firpo earned with the writers.

It would seem that Firpo is naturally frank and truthful rather than inexperienced and trained in the art of prevarication, which many boxers have assumed as a privilege of their profession. There are more "white lies" in boxing than in any other sport and there are vastly more "black lies" practiced as a licensed deviation from the rules.

While he was training in Atlantic City for the Dempsey fight, a party of newspapermen visited his cottage and found a rubber working indus-triously on his left arm. Some casual inquiries were voiced by the scribes and Firpo replied that he had been bothered for several days with an attack of neuritis.

Under ordinary procedure, Firpo would have been forced by a manager to cover up his ailment, or if there would be some purpose in having it noised about that he was not in physical shape, more open means of drawing it to the attention of the press would have been followed.

BASKETBALL LID IS LIFTED FRIDAY NIGHT

Webb Defeats Burney Here, 47 to 11,
And New Salem Wins From Arlington; 23 to 19

GAMES UNDER NEW RULES

The high school basketball lid was officially pried off Friday night in this county, when two games were played, with Webb having little trouble in trouncing the Burney high school of Decatur county and New Salem sprang a surprise by handing Arlington a defeat. The scores were Webb 47, Burney 11; New Salem 23, Arlington 19.

Webb and Burney attracted a big crowd for their opening game, which was played on the Modern Appliance floor in this city, and the game was played under the new rules, with quarters being used instead of halves. The four ten minute periods are believed to make a faster game than the two 20 minute periods, used before.

At no time in the game was Webb in doubt, and they played in mid-season form. New Salem outplayed Arlington in the last half, in the game at Arlington, and won the game by the close count of 23 to 19. New Salem lined up with Wills and King at forward; K. Wilson at center; H.
Wilson and E. Wilson at guards.

FOUR SELLING BAD LIQUOR ARE ACCUSED

Pana, Ill., Men Are Held to Grand Jury as Result of Death of Five Who Drank It

TWO SOUGHT BY SHERIFF

(By United Press)
Pana, Ill., Oct. 13.—Four men today were held to the Christian county grand jury, without bail, for murder, on instructions of a coroner's jury which yesterday completed investigation the death of five men and brought in a verdict of death by poison whiskey.

The grand jury, specially summoned, will meet at Taylorville, the county seat, Monday.

John Tokoly, owner of the saloon where the whiskey, declared by the coroner's jury to have contained fusel oil, and his son, Stephen, are under arrest. Both are in a hospital here. They drank the same liquor.

The sheriff is searching for Robert
A. Smith, Pana druggist, and Paul Tokoly, another son of the saloon-keeper included in the coroner's jury recommendation. Smith told his wife he was going to Pekin, Ill., where police have been asked to arrest him.

The saloon-keeper told the coroner's jury that Smith furnished the alcohol used in the manufacture of the liquor "the color of whiskey," which killed five in two days this week and put a half dozen other men in hospitals. Relatives of the dead men testified the victims had declared before their death they purchased the liquor in Tokoly's place.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 13.—Judge Lian D. Hay in superior court today mandated State Auditor Robert M.
Bracken to transfer to the state highway department $1,500,000 in gasoline tax funds. Bracken had refused to transfer the money on the ground the constitutionality of the gasoline tax law should first be tested. The mandate was issued on petition of Attorney General U. S. Lesh.

THREATENS TO STOP GAME

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 13.—Heavy rain today indicated that the third game of the Kansas City-Baltimore series would have to be postponed.

WHEN YANKEE ROOTERS WENT WILD

The Yankees' big moment came in the second inning. Ward had singled past Groh on the first pitch. Schang singled to center, Ward stopping at second. Scott out, Ward and Schang advancing. Hoyt fanned. Then Witt singled, scoring Ward and Schang. This remarkable photo shows Witt reaching first, Ward scoring and Schang rounding third on the way to the plate.

BIG TEN TEAMS IN ACTION TODAY

First Round Of The Championship
Fight Is Under Way Between
Four Football Teams

NORTHWESTERN VS INDIANA

Indianapolis Host Today To Big
Contest, While Purdue Meets Iowa
At Latter's Field

(By United Press)
Chicago, Oct. 13. —Big ten teams open the first round of the championship fight today when Purdue meets Iowa and Northwestern clashes with Indiana.

Ohio State tackles the hardest mid-west game of the year in Colgate, powerful eastern team. The Buckeyes fight for the honor of western conference football and may be expected to give their all. The known strength of Colgate leaves the result in question.

Iowa is credited with having a comparatively easy game in the war titled although the Purdue followers have been hollering for a championship this year.

Judging from the DePauw defeat of Indiana the Northwestern team should go Evanstonward tonight with a victory to their credit but the return of cripples of the Indiana line-up may alter the result.

Wisconsin's showing against the Michigan aggies will give fans an opportunity to compare Chicago and Wisconsin for the first time. The farmers are not expected to prove troublesome for Wisconsin.

Vanderbilt comes north to meet Michigan with memories of a scoreless tie last year still fresh in their minds. The Wolverines also recollect that incident and are expected to place their best team on the field to win.

In Butler, Coach Zuppke's Illinois eleven expects to find a worthy successor to Nebraska. The Indianapolis team has nine veterans from the team that last year scored a victory over the Illini.

Minnesota again is forced to play a team well filled with substitutes in meeting the Haskell Indians. Injuries persist in the Minnesotans.

Chicago has an idle day with no game scheduled. Coach Stagg expects to give his charges a long drill to polish up the attacks that so far has proved insufficient. Against the Colorado Aggies, a week ago, Chicago was twice held for downs when within three years of a touchdown.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 13. —
The state capital pushed practically everything aside today to make way for football, king of autumn sports.

A likely looking squad from Northwestern university a squad said to be much superior to anything Northwestern has had on the field for many years, invaded Indianapolis for the annual game with Indiana university. It is the only Big Ten game to be played in Indianapolis this season.

Approximately 2,000 Indiana rooters arrived from Bloomington this morning. The Crimson band, numbering 132 pieces met the special train and headed a parade through the downtown district.

A Northwestern special from Chicago, bearing 400 rooters and the Purple band of 60, pulled in a few minutes later and another parade, smaller but no less enthusiastic marched through the streets.

Washington Park, scene of the game, was in fine condition. A ca-

COOLIDGE FOR ENFORCEMENT

Prohibition Commissioner Haynes Speaks At Citizenship Conference

Washington, Oct. 13. — "President Coolidge stands for square law, for enforcement of the prohibition law.
He is no less wholehearted regarding this matter than the late president Harding. The Department of Justice is also dead in earnest."

These facts were flatly stated today by prohibition Commissioner Roy A. Haynes, at the morning session of the Citizenship Conference.
Candidates in the next Presidential election must declare frankly how they stand on the prohibition question, according to Bishop William F. McDowell, resident bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Washington in an address of welcome this morning. He declares that the question of prohibition enforcement will occupy an important place in the presidential election. He stated that the friends of prohibition "have not the slightest intention of yielding now the victory has been won."

KRYL HERE SUNDAY

The two performances scheduled for Sunday at the coliseum by Kryl's Band will be a big event for Rushville concert season. Since the first announcement of Kryl's appearance at the park, such unusual interest in the event has been manifested by the whole community that a hearty welcome and an audience that will tax the limits of the coliseum to its utmost capacity are assured for Kryl and his musicians. Kryl's success with the masses and the classes alike is easily understood by those who study him. His genial personality his unaffected manner and his genuineness of purpose win him an instant response from his audiences. Kryl has no mannerisms; nor idiosyncrasies, he is just what he appears, a whole-souled, big-hearted, generous man. Above all these, Kryl is conscientious and gives the best that is in him at all times without reserve.
He loves music for music's sake, and no matter where he appears or under what conditions, he enters into the spirit of his art with all the enthusiasm and vigor of his whole being.

CUBS LEAD REDUCED

Chicago, Oct. 13. —With the Chicago Cubs lead in the city series reduced to one game, the Sox lined up today to attempt to even the score.

The count was made two to one in favor of the National League team yesterday when "Red" Faber, veteran Sox hurler, held the Cubs to six hits, and the Sox won 4 to 2. The cubs used three pitchers and first baseman Frieberg trotted the circuit after a hot one to the bleachers, but they lost.

Yesterday's game was witnessed by more than 25,000.

CASEY'S MOTHER KNEW IT

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 13. —"We knew Charlie was a long ways from being through as a baseball player yet," said Mrs. Louis Stengel, Casey Stengel's mother today. Casey, once regarded as a worn-out fielder, has won two games off the Giants with home runs during the world series.
During the winter he lives with his mother and sister here.

"I am mighty grateful to McGraw for giving Charlie a new chance," said the mother, "I guess for a while Mr. McGraw and I were the only ones who thought the boy could play base ball. Our confidence in his ability has not proven unwarranted."

SURE IT DOES GOOD

Thedford's Black-Draught Liver Medicine (Vegetable) Praised by the Head of a Louisiana Family.

Lake Charles, La.—"I don't know what we would have done had we not had Black-Draught. It sure is one of the best medicines made, and am sure the best liver medicine," said Mr. Henry Garrett, of this city.

"My whole family uses it," continued Mr. Garrett. "My wife says she believes she kept off the 'flu' by taking doses of Black-Draught regularly."

"I, myself, use Black-Draught for indigestion, and it is fine. We used pills and tablets and other laxatives, but they never seemed to do us good, but the Black-Draught sure has, and it has come to our house to stay. We give it to our daughter for headache and torpid liver."

"I am glad to recommend anything that has been the help to my family that Black-Draught has."

"My present health is good. Have two boxes of Black-Draught in the house now."

If your liver gets out of fix, take Black-Draught. It will help to drive the bile poisons and other unhealthy matters out of your system.

TWO INJURED IN AUTO COLLISION

to swing around, and head in the opposite direction.
The force of the collision sent the touring car and the two occupants against the curb, breaking down the front right wheel, throwing the broken windshield into the faces and laps of the two men, and badly wrecking the car.

The Ford roadster suffered a broken and badly bent radiator in the collision. Theobald is employed at Knightstown, according to his story, and resides in Decatur county, and he was enroute to his home.

The two injured men were taken into the residence of B. T. Madden, 833 North Main street, where Dr. M. C. Sexton was called and attended to their injuries, and they were later removed to their homes. Monroe was able to be at work today, but Arney was too badly bruised to be out.

According to Monroe, his lights were not working well on his machine when he left the car shops, and as he attempted to cross Main street in Ninth, he was blinded by a car approaching from the west, but thought he had plenty of time to clear the crossing before the other machine from the north would get there.

He said that the machine from the north was speeding and did not clear his machine, the rear end being struck.

Testimony and witnesses will be called for the session Tuesday night in police court in an effort to place the blame for the accident.

Members of Well Known Family Organize to go After Fortune

counties are being urged to attend that meeting.

It is estimated that there are from 100 to 150 members of the Edwards family living in Shelby county, who are said to be entitled to a share in the New York estate. At a recent meeting in Indianapolis, held by members of the Edwards family of this section, it was stated that there are at least 1,000 members of the family scattered over nine states of this part of the country.

Claims of the family are based on the alleged expiration of a lease given by the Trinity Corporation, of New York City, to Robert Edwards in 1660. Attorneys interested in the case believe that this lease expired in 1779, but the Trinity Corporation continued to hold the possession of the property and still has the estate. It is estimated that the estate is worth from $500,000,000 to $1,000,000,000.

Fifteen members of the family, living in Shelby and Rush counties attended the meeting Thursday.

MRS. N. J. REEVES DIES AT COLUMBUS

but about eleven o'clock called to Miss Esther Mengler, who stays at the Reeves home. Miss Mengler hurried to the bedside of Mrs. Reeves, and the latter remarked that she believed that she was going to die. Although Mrs. Reeves protested, Miss Mengler summoned a physician and also Charles Reeves a son and a few minutes after their arrival Mrs. Reeves succumbed.

On July 13, 1849 Mrs. Reeves whose maiden name was Nancy Jane Kirkpatrick, was born in Rush county, where she lived the early part of her life. On September 11, 1856 she was united in marriage to Milton M. Reeves, and in 1880 the couple moved from Kokomo to this city. Mr. Reeves passed away August 20, 1890. Mrs. Reeves had continuously resided in this city since first locating here, and during that time she had made many sincere friends, all of whom as well as the relatives, suffered shock at her sudden death.

Mrs. Reeves was of superior womanhood and hers was a most useful life. She was a woman possessed of a beautiful character, and her sincere friendship and love for all mankind was expressed daily in her deeds of kindness and help toward others. She was ever devoted to her home and family, and yet found time to participate in the activities of the Christian church of which she was a life-long member. For many years she had been a leader in the aid society work, and in all charitable movements and many homes throughout the city have been made happier and better by her unselfish giving and kindly guidance.

Mrs. Reeves was the mother of three children, two of whom like the husband, preceded her in death, they being Mrs. Ora S. Newsom who passed away September 8, 1908 and Mrs. Hazel Reeves Scott who died October 27, 1918. One son Charles Reeves, of this city, several grandchildren, including Reeves Newsom of Lynn, Mass., Miss Editha Newsom of Saranac Lake, N. Y., Lucile, George, Virginia and Charlotte Reeves of this city, Robert Donald, John C. and James Arthur Scott of Indianapolis, survive as do also two sisters, Mrs. William P. McBride of Knightstown and Mrs. Sarah McBride of Rushville, a brother Dr. J. B. Kirkpatrick of Indianapolis, a half brother Jesse Kirkpatrick of this city and a half sister Mrs. Carrie Thomas of Kokomo.

MOVIES

"Action in 'A Man of Action'"

That's what photoplay fans want. In "A Man of Action", now running at the Princess theatre, Thomas H. Ince has produced a mystery-comedy that's all action from start to finish.

"There's a little love, a plot the fans can't guess until the end, plenty of laughs and a big thrill. With never a minute's let-up, 'A Man of Action' is accurately described as a 'movie that moves.'"

Here's the plot in brief: Douglas MacLean plays a silk stocking youth with more dough than ambition. The girl he loves (Marguerite de la Motte) has enough pep for a whole boarding school. She drives him out to do something—and he does.

We'll say he does. He gets mixed up with a band of crooks, who black-jack him into robbing his own home. What a mix-up. Cops, crooks and kisses.

The cast of "A Man of Action" is a strong one. Douglas MacLean is a big favorite with the fans—especially the ladies. And Marguerite de la Motte, featured in "The Three Musketeers", has the principal feminine role.

"The Firebrand" Mystic

"The Firebrand," at the Mystic today, is the story of a nester holding his small tract of land in the face of most adverse opposition, and overcoming the obstacles that force him to vacate his homestead. He not only gains the upper hand at every turn but aids the local sheriff in capturing a gang of dangerous, cattle rustlers, forcing the gang down a deep well for safekeeping until the sheriff arrives. And after defeating old Judd Anker, the neighboring rancher, in his attempts to make him leave, he quietly informs that gaudy old individual that he has been married to his daughter Alice for a year.

"The Firebrand" introduces a new method of capturing outlaws, a very high-powered idea. Franklyn Farnum, as Bill Holt the nester, discovers a plot to burn his shack and run off his cattle. He beats the rustlers to it by shooting a high tension wire in two, dropping it across his barbed wire fence, charging the fence with electricity. When the gang take hold of the barbed wire they find they are unable to release their hold and remain there until the sheriff arrives.

BACK ACHE

Amarillo, Texas.—"My back was my greatest trouble. It would ache so that it would almost kill me and I would have cramps. I suffered in this way about three years; then a lady friend suggested that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had better health since, keep house and am able to do my work. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends as it has certainly given me great relief."—Mrs. C. B. ROBINSON, 608 N. Lincoln St., Amarillo, Tex.

The Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine for women. It relieves the troubles which cause such symptoms as backache, painful times, irregularity, tired and worn-out feelings and nervousness. This is shown again and again by such letters as Mrs. Robinson writes as well as by one woman telling another. These women know what it did for them. It is surely worth your trial.

Housewives make a great mistake in allowing themselves to become so ill that it is well-nigh impossible for them to attend to their necessary household duties.

A Resume of Week's Activities in Schools of Various Townships, Dealing With Athletics and Scholarship

The County School Reflector

(Edited by the Students)

Carthage, Center, Gings, Glenwood, New Salem, Milroy, Moscow, Webb, Arlington, Manilla, Homer, Raleigh

THE RALEIGH SCHOOL

The Raleigh team's record of last year is nothing to boast of, but by retaining all of the regulars and adding others to the squad, we fully expect to see a marked improvement when they appear on the floor for the 1923-24 season.

M. Craig with his clever dribbling and floor work will probably be the equal of any center in our county circle. Clifton, Arnold and G. Craig have qualities for their forward positions that should add many thrills to our county contests.

We fully expect to see several of our opponent's offensive plays "muzzed up" by Rider, Newkirk, Gordon and Bingman from their guarding position, and an occasional "long ranger" to add spice to our games.

We are looking forward to one of the most closely contested basketball seasons in the history of Rush county, and in submitting the following schedule, we anticipate great success for Raleigh:

Nov. 2—At Cambridge City.
Nov. 9—With Fairview.
Nov. 16—At Moscow.
Nov. 23—At Webb.
Nov. 28—With Carthage.
Dec. 7—At Morristown.
Dec. 14—With Carthage.
Dec. 21—With Cambridge City.
Jan. 11—With Moscow.
Jan. 18—At Arlington.
Jan. 24—At Milroy.
Jan. 25—At Morristown.
Feb. 2—County tourney.
Feb. 8—At Fairview.
Feb. 9—Carthage tourney.
Feb. 15—With Webb.
Feb. 22—With Arlington.
Feb. 29—Sectional tourney.

HOMER SCHOOL

(Beulah Willis, Editor)

Many improvements have been made in the Homer school since last year. Electric lights have been installed in the building, the walls have been repainted, several new books added to the library, and we are now using a systematic way of lending the books.

Teachers Are Praised

We have fine teachers this year.

Luther J. Arend, principal, is a graduate of State Normal. Howard W. Clawson of Manilla teaches the seventh and eighth grades and high school history. Mrs. Marjorie Bell of Rushville teaches the fifth and sixth grades and domestic science. Miss Orpha Wagoner, who attended Muncie college, teaches the third and fourth, and Miss Vida Frow has charge of the primary room. Miss Frow attended Bloomington college. Miss Nellie Merrill teaches music and art. She is an experienced teacher.

Ten in High School

The enrollment in high school this year is only ten pupils, but we have a splendid high school. We are enjoying our English work very much. We have been studying "Written and Spoken English" by Clippinger, and have been finding much enjoyment in oral compositions.

Weiner Roast

Friday night, October 5 the high school and seventh and eighth grades had a weiner roast at the home of George Meid, one mile east of Homer. Thirty-five persons were present. All had an enjoyable time. We had a large supply of weiners, buns and marshmallows. Games were played both before and after the "feast".

County Officials Visit

The high school boys are making some interesting experiments in Biology. The grade boys are studying agriculture. Donald Ball, agricultural agent, was just a little too late Friday to visit their classes, but he seemed much pleased with their work. Birney D. Farthing, county superintendent, also paid a visit to the school on Friday.

Parent-Teacher's Meeting

The teachers and officers met Friday at the school house to arrange for a parent-teacher's meeting to be held Tuesday, October 16. The officers are: Mrs. William Webster, president; Russell Johnson, vice president; Mrs. Doreia Callahan, secretary and Conrad Posz, treasurer.

Tests Given Pupils

Tuesday, October 9, four inspectors came to our school and gave us some mental tests. Approximately two hours were required for these tests.

CENTER SCHOOL

The faculty of the Center school is principal, F. C. Landrus; science, history, commercial arithmetic and music: Edna Swart, Latin, English 7th and 8th grammar; Esther Schlegel, mathematics, home economics and art; Lowell DeMoss, seventh and eighth grades and agriculture; Elvina Goode, fifth and sixth grades.

Speaks of Mormons

Miss Schlegel gave a very interesting talk on "The Mormon People" for opening exercises last Thursday. The hospitality of the Mormons was especially emphasized.

Mr. DeMoss is coaching the boys in track work.

The boys have organized three basketball teams and have chosen the following captains, first team, Merrill Reddick; second team, Russell Apple; third team, Golay Meek. The high school girls have purchased a new basketball.

MOSCOW SCHOOL

The senior class of the M. H. S. met the other day and elected new officers. George McAhren was elected president; Thompson Tillson, vice president, and Carlos Reber, secretary and treasurer. The class colors are cardinal and white. The class flower is the American Beauty.

Junior Class Elects

The Junior class met Tuesday, October 2 to elect class officers; Wanda Richey, the retiring president, presided. The following were elected: Merle Alexander, president; Georgin Lanning, vice president; Helen Solomon, secretary treasurer; Dorothy Alexander, chairman of social committee and Esther Solomon, class editor. So far we have chosen neither class flower nor motto. We have our class colors, old rose and silver which we selected last year. Although our class is the smallest in school, having only nine members, we feel that it is quality that counts and not the quantity.

Sophomores Organize

We are again back to M. H. S. with only one new addition. There are eighteen in the class at present. The class has been organized and the following officers elected; Charles Campbell, president; Victoria Solo-man, vice president; Lillian Cahmer, secretary and treasurer; class editor, Victoria Solomon and sponsor, Mr. Bates. The class colors are green and pink. The class flower is pink rose. We are improving wonderfully in all studies under the instruction of our teachers.

Freshmen Active

The Freshman class held a class meeting, when the following officers were elected: Bertha Cole, president; Kathleen Reber, vice president; and Eva Kuntz, secretary-treasurer. Green and white were chosen as the class colors, pink rose, class flower and the motto is "Be and By".

Twenty Out For Basketball

The Moscow high school basketball team is again coached by L. E. Means, former Franklin hardwood star. A large force is out this year, about twenty boys coming out for practice each night. Gosnell, Tillson, B. Hungerford, Alexander and Whisman are the veterans from last year's team. Around these five stars, Coach Means expects to build one of the fastest and hardest playing aggregations in the county. Coach Means is working the team hard for their first game which will be October 27 with New Salem. On October 26, Moscow second team will clash with the Waldron second team. Some of the new men are Robert Hurst, Raymond Hurst, Reber, Casey, Coers, Creed, Spaulding, Roberts, Cole, Campbell and Thompson. Howard Hungerford, former Webb star, is showing his wares to Coach Means and probably will make the team.

Girls Are Practicing

The girls are practicing some but will be a few days before they will be ready to take the floor. There are a few new ones out for the team this year. The team was hurt by graduation last year. Wanda Richey, Jesse May Parker, Mary Whisman and Dewese Tomes are the veterans. Some of the new players are Marilyn Hungerford, Leona Miller, Vivian Cahmer, Alice Parker, Beryl Hunt, Ethel Peck, and Opal Willey.

The following is the schedule for the varsity basketball team: October 27—New Salem at Moscow. November 3—At Morristown. November 10—Waldron at Moscow. November 16—Raleigh at Moscow. November 24—At Arlington. November 29—Webb at Moscow. December 8—Newpoint at Moscow (pending). December 14—At Manilla. December 21—Morristown at Moscow.

GINGS SCHOOL

Tuesday morning, September 25, for opening exercises, the Juniors entertained the assembly. First the Primary grades sang "The Lady Bug." Arthur Courtner, was chairman.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

By Stanley

man, Joe Custer, read the original verses made by the students in the assembly and Ruth Billings played an instrumental solo.

Sophomores Entertain

On Tuesday, October 2, the Sophomores gave the entertainment. Alice Aikens was appointed chairman and she certainly was on duty. Quartet was given by Mildred Billings, Clara Courtner, Alice Aikens and Helen Kennedy. A dialogue entitled "Courtship Under Difficulties" was given by Naomi Nash, Clyde Gordon and Franklin Felts. Naomi Nash played the part of "Prudence" who was courted by "Mr. Jones" played by Clyde Gordon. Franklin Felts as "Snobblerton" made courtship difficult for Mr. Jones. The Sophomores were heartily applauded and Mrs. Ross had quite a few chuckles.

Next Tuesday morning the Freshmen will entertain.

Domestic Science Girls Serve

The Junior and Sophomore girls served hot chocolate to the school last Friday. They are taking domestic science under their instructor, Mrs. Ross. Everyone agreed that the chocolate was delicious and wanted them to serve it again soon.

Wins Base Ball Game

Due to timely hitting Gings won a well played game Tuesday evening on the ball ground at Gings. R. McCulloch pitching for Gings, struck out 13 batters and walked one man. Hackleman, pitching for Fairview, struck out 7 batters and walked three men. Both teams fielded fairly well. Score inning by inning:

1. R. McCulloch fanned the first three men that faced him, neither team scored.
2. Fairview scored two runs and Gings scored three runs.
3. Fairview scored three and Gings two.
4. Fairview one and Gings nothing.
5. Fairview failed to score with two men out and with Fairview's one run in the lead, Felts came to bat and saved the game by scoring. G. McCulloch and getting safely to first himself. Custer followed with a home run and the game was safely tucked away. The final score was 7 to 6 in favor of Gings. CARTHAGE SCHOOL

The Carthage schools began September 10 with the following enrollments, Grades 191; Junior high school 79; senior high school 48; and Booker T. Washington, grade school, 17. Until the new building is completed grades Five and Six will hold sessions at the auditorium and the Junior and Senior high school will occupy the second floors of the old building.

Form Athletic Association

C. H. S. has organized an athletic association composed of all students that have a passing grade in three subjects. The said association has adopted a constitution and the following officers have been elected for the first semester: Gilbert Glover, president; Marjory Henley, vice president, and Josephine Herkless, secretary-treasurer. Assisting the officers are the board of control, a faculty adviser, and several committees. This association will have charge of all athletic activities, both financially and otherwise for the coming season.

Girls Team Practicing

The girls' basketball team began practice recently under the supervision of Miss Taylor, coach, and Miss Elliott, manager. The unfinished schedule reports two games each with Webb, Raleigh and Arlington. Candidates for the first team squad are: Brennan, Herkless, Johnson, Hahn, M. Henley, R. Henley, B. Henley, Moore and Theobald.

Commercial Course Popular

The new Commercial course taught by Miss Carfield has proved to be very popular among the students of Senior high. Six new typewriters have been installed in the Commercial room and besides typewriting Miss Carfield instructs in shorthand, book-keeping and commercial law.

Squad Getting in Shape

The Carthage high school basketball squad is whipping itself into shape for the opener on next Wednesday night, when they take on Fortville at Carthage.

Coach Zartman has been putting the team through extra licks and the best team in years is the early prediction of those who have seen the team work. The squad this year will probably be made up of Kennedy, Glover, Hahn, E. Moore, F. Moore, Heim Renegar, Sder and Alexander.

Carthage has the foundation of most of last year's players, and with much new material on hand, the coach will have plenty to pick a winning team. The schedule this year is a strong one, and has been completed. It is as follows:

Oct. 17—Fortville here.
Oct. 26—Webb here.
Nov. 2—Manilla there.
Nov. 9—Fortville there.

WEBB SCHOOL

Girls Team Successful
Webbs Girl Team has been very successful in the last year. The only game which they lost last year was played at Carthage, when two of the regulars were off.

Among the teams which they defeated last year were: Manilla, Raleigh, Moscow, Arlington, Milroy, Rushville and New Salem.

Although Mildred Carwein, a regular forward, graduated last year their line-up should be even stronger than that of last with the addition of the following players: Helen Jones, Edith Lower and Farnes Dudgeon.

Webb Has New Principal

This year marks the beginning of Mr. Vernal Klipsch's career as a principal. This first month proves to all of us that he is a very capable and very willing to fulfill his duties. We are quite sure that under his guidance, this year will go down in the history of Webb as the most successful of all years.

Coach Has Good Record

Howard Patterson of New Salem, Indiana, a student of Purdue University from 1919-1921 has been engaged as coach this year. For the past two years he taught in Fountain City, Wayne county. He had a very successful year there last year. His ten winning eighteen games out of twenty-three, which they played. His team played Richmond in the Finals, when Richmond went to the State Tournament.

Domestic Science Work

The domestic science class of the Webb school consists of eighteen members of the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades in charge of Miss Smith.

Hot lunches are served each day at the noon hour to the teachers and domestic science girls. The expenses are partially covered by charging a small sum for each meal.

Any one wishing a good meal drop in the Webb school about noon and receive a fair sample.

School Interior Decorated

We registered approval as we entered the building the first day of school when we saw freshly tinted walls, repainted wood work, and repainted desks, but one other thing we had yet to learn about was the new gilt on the radiators. The first day that Teck fixed up the furnace, the smoke nearly suffocated us.

But brightening up the building does make the pupils brighter—you know. We are trying to show how much we appreciate this great change by keeping the building as bright and clean as we found it.

Seniors Entertain

Friday night September the 28th the Seniors entertained the Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors with a weiner roast at Webb's Ford. After about fifteen couples had enjoyed the camp light for an hour, the party started to Rushville. Some of the party evidently forgot where they started for they failed to make an appearance. John Sefton turned out to let a culvert pass and had to call for help. We suppose the machine became frightened. Lowell Osborn was very much alarmed at the cry for help and went through town like a bird. The cop did not see any wings on him so he pinched Lowell for speeding.

The remainder of the party saw "Sears of Jealousy" at the Princess Theatre after which they attended a dance at Bertha Martin's. The dance was a great success. Outside of all our troubles we had a wonderful evening and hope the other classes will be able to show the seniors a good time before long.

Ban On Cigarettes

Mr. Patterson stated that he did not want any student who smoked on the team. He further stated that if he saw any member of the squad smoking, he would be requested to turn in his suit on the following day. So boys its can the smoking or get canned.

NEW SALEM

Each class of the high school should give its news to the secretary who will give it to Dorothy Wilson. After being censored by one of the teachers, it will be sent to the publisher.

Freshmen Lead

The grades for the first month were out Wednesday, the Freshmen leading in the percent of attendance. Those on the honor roll were Freshmen, Galt Browning, and Evelyn Cooke; Sophomores, Deloris Miller and Mary Heaton; Seniors, Mildred Wilson.

School will be dismissed on Thursday and Friday of next week to enable the teachers to attend the Teacher's Association at Indianapolis.

Basketball Hopes Blasted

Our expectations in regards to the promising basketball season are blasted as "Happy" Warner has sprained his wrist.

Wanted: A young man with an adding machine and a strong arm to keep basketball scores for New Salem coming season. Apply A. Jinks, coach.

Fred Wilson, who has been absent for two days, has returned to school. Several members of the Sophomore class attended the Service-Progress special exhibition at Rushville Monday evening.

"Prince" Albert has introduced a tobacco reform among the boys of the high school here.
